Preface
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many descendants of John Bear and his sons have been interested in the Bear family history and have diligently searched for their ancestors for over half a Century, before and since the age of the Internet. This book attempts to compile data and stories previously written and provide as much up-to-date documentation as possible. While this study focuses on John Bear's descendants through his son Christian Bear, I want to gratefully acknowledge the work done by those who descend from other sons, especially from Jacob and Abner Bear. Many who have gone before us and many others in the 21st Century have shown a keen interest in this Bear family history. I appreciate the willingness of all to share their findings with me as I have attempted to put it all together in one book. Family historians who have collaborated with me over the years include Charles von Dietrich Knighton, of Cincinnati, OH, who descends from Abner Bear of Jefferson Co., IN, half-brother of Christian Bear, and Louise Greer Erekson of Billings, MT, who descends from Jacob Bear, brother of Christian. I owe them a debt of gratitude.

Many descendants of Christian and Nancy Hall Bear from across the country have shared information on the "branches" of the Bear family; among them are Mary Sue Johnson Higgins, Mildred Bear Ginn and her brother W. Robert "Bob" Bear, Patricia Bear Six, Sheri and W. Robert Bear, Jr., Virginia and L. Ray Bear, Mary Hanley-Wydock and her brother Terence Hanley, Bonnie Ashcraft Myers, Carol Day Crawford; Valerie Bair Strickland and her daughter Christine Strickland; Michelle Adams, Hurley and Judith Bair Adams, Margaret Comely Ard and Ralph Atchison, Carol McWethy Cattolico, Lt. Cristy Lee McWethy, Cheryl Russell Nolin and her mother Janet Brinlee; Beverly Johnson Wade, Marian Smith, and Arthur "Pete" Cox, James L. "Jim" Rogers, Bette Rogers Hackney, Clint and Nancy Bear, Hillary Bear, Louise Bear; Ray N. Black, Jr., Janet Bear Glesing, Anita Bear Butler, Carol Adams; Karen Corbin, Nancy Bear Wells, Judith Stoelting Jehn, Randi Loreaux Leavy, Dorothy Bergman Lane, Norma McWhorter and daughter Tricia McWhorter Shelley; Janet Lockridge Bay, June Bear Ritchie, Mae Bear Ramey, and many others. Thanks to all who sent photos and family records. Appreciation is expressed to Sheri Harris Bear who spent many hours assisting with online research, and to John and Emmily Bair Enyart who printed this Book.

I also want to say thanks to my husband, Warren, for his patience in following me around in scores of cemeteries, photographing tombstones, and also to Bob Paddock, Family Services, Crown Hill Cemetery, for being a helpful guide, enabling us to find and photograph many Bear relatives' tombstones in the third largest cemetery in the USA. The many burial records and tombstone photos in cemeteries in Shannon Co., MO, submitted to Find A Grave by Robert J. Stauffer, Jr., provided valuable information on Bair-Comely-Atchison relatives who settled in that part of Missouri. And I am grateful for the helpful librarians and historians in countless genealogy libraries and historical societies from Madison, Indiana, to Marble Hill, Missouri and beyond, for their assistance.

Jean W. Perney, Author/compiler of "Bear Branches"

THE AUTHOR/COMPILER:

Jean Wilson Perney, a native of Madison in Jefferson County, Indiana, graduated from Madison High School in 1943 and worked for the U.S. Government at the Jefferson Proving Ground during World War II. She graduated from Hanover College, Hanover, IN, in 1948 with a B.A. degree in social sciences. She earned her Masters degree in Christian Ministries from Christian Theological Seminary/Butler University, Indianapolis, in 1967.

She holds memberships in the Indiana Historical Society, Historical Societies in Jefferson and Ripley counties in Indiana, and the Tri-County Genealogical Society. She serves on the state Board of Assistants and is former Board Secretary of the Indiana Society of Mayflower Descendants. She is affiliated with the national Fuller Society and is a member of the Society of Indiana Pioneers and of the Hamilton County Genealogical Society, where she has served in various offices including President and Secretary.

Her interest in genealogy began early in life. In 1948 she published a biographical sketch of the life of her maternal grandmother, Luella (Morgan) Phillips, and since then has published several genealogy books. Jean compiled Ancestors and Descendants of Augustus Meek and Susan Gertrude Phillips of Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., IN, in 1993. She and her husband, Warren W. Perney, were co-authors of Peroni Roots and Peroney - Perney Branches, a family history published in 1994. She was one of several researchers who submitted data for publication in the 1995 Supplement to Cady Genealogy, Revised and Updated, by Dr. James W. Cady. In 1996 she co-authored Ancestors and Descendants of Daniel Morgan and Polly Frost, along with David L. Mordy, of CT, and Betty L. Storey, of CA. In 1999 she published Kinfolk of Adin W. Knapp and Sarah P. Cady of Ripley County, Indiana, and her most recent publication was Wilsons from Southeast Indiana, published in 2007.

Jean is retired from a church and social work career and lives in Indianapolis, IN. She and Warren are proud parents of two children, four grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. They enjoy reading and traveling and are active in church and community activities.

In a work as large as this one, with so many names and dates, errors are unavoidable. The author apologizes for mistakes and/or omissions and welcomes corrections and additional information from readers by E-mail to jwperney@earthlink.net.

THE NUMBERING SYSTEM

This Family Tree Maker Version 16 book uses the NGS Quarterly (descendant ordered) format. The purpose of a numbering system is to help place a person in context with his or her ancestors and descendants. It is important to know the meaning of the various kinds of numbers in order to understand how a large genealogy such as this one is organized.

Follow the numbers: Generation 1, person #1 is Christian Bear, the progenitor of this Bear family. Each of his descendants has a number which is found in bold print to the left of his name. This person's children are listed, each with a number of their own to the left of the name, and also with a small Roman numeral indicating the order within the family, i.e.
1. Christian Bear and his wife Nancy Hall are Generation 1. His nine children (Generation 2) are listed in order as "i, ii, iii, iv, v, vi, vii, viii, and ix. Since all nine have children carrying down to the next Generation, a plus + mark is found to the left of their names. The plus mark means that the person is a parent and the reader must follow the parent's number (bold face type) to find the children in the next Generation, and so on down to the youngest Generation.

Lineage is given in parentheses to the right of a person's name, the surnames in all capital letters and given names in lower case. This shows the person's ancestors with a superscript number (above) for the previous generation.

To find a person, navigate the numbering system by following the individual's number, and if that fails, use the Index to find the page numbers for that person's name.

INDEX

The Index found at the end of this book includes primary individuals and their spouses, their direct descendants and spouses, with corresponding page numbers. Since women are listed in the Index by their maiden names only and are not cross-referenced with their married names, the best way to find married women and in-laws is to look for names of direct descendants. The surname was spelled differently by some descendants. If you do not find the name under "Bear", look for Bair, Beare, or Bare, or for variant spellings for the same person, such as BEAR (BAIR) OR BEAR (BEARE).

FOOTNOTES AND SOURCES

Footnotes and source citations in the main text of this book (Genealogy Report) follow the basic data on each individual in the direct line of descent. They are not numbered; however, they are basically in chonological order by date of life event. For instance, they begin with the earliest record found for that person (i.e., birth record, early Census, etc.), followed by census and marriage records, death & cemetery/burial records. In younger generations, information was often provided by parents and grandparents with sources not always cited.

U.S. FEDERAL CENSUS DATES
1790 - 1930

The Constitution of the United States requires that a census be conducted at least once every 10 years.

1790 First Census of the U.S. began on August 2, 1790

Only heads of households listed by name. Numbers of males and females in household listed in broad age categories.

1800, 1810, and 1820 - Census Day was the first Monday in August

Heads of households only named with slashmarks used to indicate age brackets of others living in the household (including non-relatives)

1830, 1840, and 1850 - Census Day was June 1

1840 listed military pensioners. 1850 was the first Census to give names of all household members and listed their ages, occupations and birth places.

1860, 1870, and 1880 - Census Day was June 1

1880 was the first Census to give parents' birth places.
It had a column for illness on census day, and disabilities (deaf, mute, blind, insane).

1900 - Census Day was June 1

This Census gave month and year of birth in addition to age and number of children of wife.

1910 - Census Day was April 15

This Census gave the wife's number of children, living and deceased.

1920 - Census Day was January 1

Age of household members on their birthdays in 1919.

1930 - Census Day was April 1

This Census added a column for Veteran status and if a veteran, which War.

Note: This information is being provided to readers because it is relevant in calculating birth years. For example, the Census Day on 1 Jan 1920 gave everyone's age on last birthday (in 1919). Of course, there is always the possibility of errors by census enumerators or by those providing the information. This study has used the "Census days" as clues to birth years when the exacts dates are unknown.

INTRODUCTION

PREFATORY WORD ON THE BEAR FAMILY

By Charles von Dietrich Knighton*

As with most surnames, the name BEAR has been entered under numerous variations in official and family records. Although BEAR was the spelling most consistently used by our ancestors, one must still be mindful of the possible variants when doing research, especially in colonial documents. Prior to 1750 there were over forty immigrants of different nationalities by this name. Many of those arriving in Pennsylvania from the principalities which are now part of Germany, would migrate southwest into Maryland, Virginia, and the Carolinas, later heading into Kentucky and the Northwest Territory. Great numbers of these were of either the Reformed or the Lutheran faith. Religious affiliation was very important as offspring who left the church were sometimes disinherited. Amongst Swiss-German surnames that were believed to typically be of the Anabaptist faith, we find Baar/Barr/Baer/Beer on a list by Dr. Adalbert Goertz, published in Mennonite Family History Magazine. The probable place of origin for these was given as the Canton of Bern and the Canton of Zug.

Switzerland was the first country to introduce a surname or family name in the German language area. The practice developed gradually between 1100 and 1400 A.D., and by 1500 A.D., the Swiss had established family names, although not necessarily with a fixed spelling. Generally, Swiss place names can be assumed to be older than family names.

In a travel magazine, published by the American Automobile Association, there was a description of the Swiss city of Berne by Sebora Starr, a freelance writer from Boston. In it she stated: "You will notice the use of bears in every sign, banner and flyer you see. According to legend, Berthold V announced during a hunting trip that the city would be named after the first animal he killed. He happened to kill a bear, and bears have been the heraldic symbol for Berne ever since. You can visit the Barengraben, a deep circular pit where bears have been kept since 1480."

There were nineteen Bar/ Baer immigrants landing at Philadelphia in the 48 years between 1727 and 1775 [Genealogy of Johannes Baer 1749-1910, re-published in the Baer Newsletter, July 1988, quoting as source, Pa. Arch., Second Series, Vol XVII]. Dr. Samuel A. Baer, Ph.D., Harrisburg, PA, in his article of the Baer Family, included additional variants of the name as Baehr, Bhaer, Bair, Bare, & Bar. [The Pennsylvania German (1907-08, Vol. 7, #1, pp. 333-337, reprinted in Pennsylvania-German Genealogies]. The BAER family in Pennsylvania used Bruin's Rest for their farm name.

Several articles on the Bear families have been published by Mrs. Jane Evans Best, including, "A Bear Saga: Albis to America," published in the October 1986 issue of the Pennsylvania Mennonite Heritage, "A Bear Saga: Lancaster County and Beyond," in the January 1987 issue, and "Three Bears of Earl Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and Other Early Bears," published in the October 1981 issue. [Researchers should also consult the Robert C. Bair Collection at the York County, PA, Historical Society and The Bear Family Newsletters.]

Although Mrs. Best has suggested possible connections to explore to establish the parentage of our John, she also acknowledges that the name Johannes (John) is a very common given name in early Bear families (with all of the variant spellings). With numerous entries for the surname in the 1790 Census of Pennsylvania, not to mention those in other areas, finding a possible link is a task left to future researchers. [Surnames Listed in the 1790 U.S. Census, p. 3, lists 14 ways to spell the surname Bear, 188 heads of households in the U.S., 129 in PA].

Our John Bear may have been one of the many men of that name listed in the 1790 federal census of Pennsylvania. The surname appears in Virginia and Kentucky records prior to 1800. In Kentucky the name is found in tax lists in Mason, Franklin, Henry, Shelby, Bourbon, and other counties between 1790 and 1800.

In the 1820 federal census of Indiana, "our" ancestor was listed as John BAR, in Lancaster Township (now Milton Township), Jefferson County, Indiana. Thus, we begin with our known ancestor, John Bear, born in Pennsylvania, who died in Jefferson County, Indiana, in 1823.

Charles von Dietrich Knighton, Cincinnati, Ohio, a descendant of John Bear and his second wife, Mary Kinder, has been researching the Bear family for several decades. He wrote this analysis in 2003 which is being used with his permission as an introduction to the "Bear roots and branches" described in this family history.

BEAR ROOTS

JOHN BEAR, FATHER OF CHRISTIAN BEAR

John Bear and his first wife, said to be Esther Newcomer, are believed to have migrated from Pennsylvania into Kentucky before 1795, either over land through Virginia or down the Ohio River. They had four children, born in KY between 1795-1802. The eldest was son Christian, born in 1795; next was a daughter, Hester, followed by two sons, Jacob and Michael. The name of John's first wife, Esther (or Easter) Newcomer, is found in a biographical sketch submitted to a County History in 1889, on several "Family Group Sheets" compiled by descendants as early as the 1930s, and in a letter written by Florence Brooks in 1937.

In 1932 one of John Bear's grandsons, Dr. Lowry H. Bear of Vevay, Indiana, wrote a letter to his niece Gladys, stating that "All of our ancestors came from Germany to Pennsylvania and settled." Family members researching the Bear ancestry wrote that John's father was Jacob and although to date there is no hard evidence to verify that family tradition, John did name one son Jacob, who could have been named for a grandfather named Jacob Bear. As the origin of the surname indicates, John's ancestors were of Swiss-German origin and many immigrants came into the Port of Philadelphia and settled in Lancaster and surrounding counties in Pennsylvania in the 18th Century. Lancaster County (PA) birth records show a John Bear, born 9 June 1761 to Jacob and Elizabeth [Record Book 8]. It is possible that "our" John Bear, over age 45 in the 1820 Census, was born as early as 1861; further research is needed to determine if this John was our ancestor.

There were many Newcomers and Bears in and around Lancaster County, PA, in the 18th Century and early 19th Century. Some inter-marriages occurred between these families; however, none were between John and Esther (with any variant spellings). The idea that Christian Bear was named for a maternal grandfather, Christian Newcomer, has been explored using PA records. Christian Newcomer, a well-known and respected Bishop of the United Brethren in Christ Church wrote a lengthy Journal which was reprinted in the Mennonite Research Journal over a two-year period. The Journal of Christian Newcomer is an informative account spanning many years, up to 1834; however, this Christian had only one daughter, Elizabeth, and there is no indication in this source that she married John Bear.

Proof of Esther Newcomer's birth, marriage, or death has not yet been found. She is linked to John Bear through a persistent family tradition passed down through the generations and therefore, her name is used in this genealogy as the mother of Christian Bear. A search of records of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Kentucky in the 1790-1795 period for a marriage between John Bear and Esther Newcomer has been fruitless. She died in about 1802, after the birth of her fourth child, and before March 1803 when her husband remarried.

John Bear (Bar) married his second wife, Mary "Polly" Kinder on 7 March 1803 in Shelby Co., KY, and the following children were born in this union between 1804 and 1820: Abner, b. April 1804 in Henry Co., KY, Sophia, Catherine, Solomon, Andrew, Nancy, Elizabeth, and George W. Bear.

Some family "elders" such as Donald R. Bear (1897-1985) and Haven K. Sherlock (1896-1983), interviewed by the author in 1982, thought that their Bear ancestors came down the Ohio River on flatboats. Other family members believed that our Bears came through Virginia into Kentucky over the Wilderness Road through the Cumberland Gap, and then down the Kentucky River to its mouth at the Ohio River (near Madison). In either case, they settled on the Kentucky side of the Ohio River before moving into Indiana Territory. Land records show that John was a resident of Henry Co., KY, in February 1812 when he purchased land in Indiana Territory from the United States Land Office at Jeffersonville, IN.

Fauna Mihalko, former Jefferson County genealogy librarian, wrote in a letter to the author, dated 1982, that John Bear went to Indiana in 1812 but because of Indian problems returned to Kentucky until 1814 when it was safe for the whole family to move to Indiana. John and Mary Kinder Bear's older children were born in Kentucky and the younger ones, born after March 1814, were born in Indiana.

On 14 March 1814 John Bear with his second wife Mary and their large family came into Indiana Territory to what is now Milton Twp., Jefferson County, Indiana, to settle and clear the land and build their cabins. Their property was described as 160 acres -- SE Quarter of Section 25, Twn 4 North, Range 11 East [Deed Bk J-189]. It is located less than two miles inland from the Ohio River on the Indian-Kentuck Creek in the hills "above" what is now the town of Brooksburg, IN. The Brooksburg Road crosses this property, and a bridge over the Indian-Kentuck on this road is called "Bear Bridge." In the early years, the area was served by the "Home" Post Office, located on the Indian-Kentuck (a post office no longer in existence). John Bear was among the property owners who payed taxes for the year 1815, payable in 1816. He was listed in an Election Poll List in August 1819 in Milton Township, Jefferson County. In 1819 "Bear's Mill" was located on the Indian-Kentuck.

Indiana was granted statehood in 1816. The first federal census in which this state was included was the 1820 Census. Spellings of the surname in Indiana in that Census included Bar, Bare, Baire, Barr, and Bear. Heads of households on farms in Jefferson County were Henry, Christian, and John, and in neighboring Clark County, Jacob, Owen and David. Some descendants have said that "John and a brother" came into Indiana together, leading to speculation that John's brother was Henry Bear who also settled in Jefferson County before 1820.

John "Bar," listed as a head of household in Jefferson County in the Census of 1820, was age 45 or over (born before 1775). Five of his family members were "engaged in agriculture." While no other family members are named in that Census record, the family composition implies that John and four of his adult sons were farming. Four males and four females were age 15 and under; these were his younger children, born to John and Mary Kinder Bear (post-1803). Two sons of John and his first wife, Jacob and Michael, were not yet married, living at home.

John died before 17 July 1823 when an inventory of his estate was initiated in the Jefferson County Court. Administrators of the Will were Mary "Polly" Bear and Christian Bear, his wife and eldest son. The estate sale was held in 1824 and court records dated 16 August 1824 name the buyers. When the Census of 1830 was taken, his widow, Mary Bear, was head of household, counted in the same location in Jefferson County, IN. It was several years between the 1823 inventory of John Bear's estate until the final settlement in 1834, when the heirs, named in the Deed Book, transferred their interest ot Christian Bear who paid a sum of $100 and purchased the farm. The Bear farm remained in the family for just under 100 years.

John Bear's burial site has never been located; however, although there is no visible marker, it is presumed that he was buried in the Bear family graveyard on his Milton Township farm near the Indian-Kentuck Creek. At least a dozen unmarked field stones which could have marked graves were observed in the 20th Century in a cemetery survey by members of the John Paul Chapter of the DAR. Two of the marked graves are those of John's son Christian Bear and his wife Nancy Hall Bear.

--Research by Charles Knighton, in his manuscript (n.p.) called "Bear of the Old Northwest Territory" includes the full text of a letter dated Aug. 15, 1932 from Dr. Lowry H. Bear, Vevay, IN, great-grandson of John Bear, to niece Gladys Bear Sourbeer, Bakersfield, CA. The lengthy letter told of the Bear family history as he knew it, stating that the ancestors came from Germany to Pennsylvania and settled there before coming to Indiana.

--Biographical sketch of Judge Perry E. Bear, found in the 1889 Jefferson County History, p. 210, gave 1892 as a marriage date for John Bear and his first wife. He stated that his ancestors were from PA of German origin, stating that "his paternal grandfather, Christian Bear, was a native of Pennsylvania, and settled in Jefferson county, Ind., before the State was admitted to the Union. He was of German origin." [Note: Census records in 1850 and 1860 indicate that Christian Bear was born in KY, not in PA; and his father John was probably born in PA. Where the Bears lived

John Bear's land was located in Section 25 of Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., Indiana Territory, purchased from the U. S. Government in 1812; sold to son Christian Bear in 1834 after John's estate was settled. The nearest Post Office was called "Home, Indiana."

BEAR TERRITORY - THE LAND AND WATERWAY

In March 1814 John Bear, his second wife Mary and their family came into Jefferson Co., IN, to settle on the land they had purchased from the U.S. Government land office in 1812. The property was described as 160 acres--the South East Quarter of Section 25, T4 North, Range 11 East. It is less than two miles inland from the Ohio River on the Indian-Kentuck Creek. The Brooksburg Road now crosses this property, and a bridge built over the Indian-Kentuck on this road is called the "Bear Bridge."

CHRISTIAN BEAR, SON OF JOHN

Christian, the first child born to John Bear and his first wife, presumed to be Esther Newcomer, was born in July 1795. His probable birth place was Kentucky although in later years his adult children had various opinions about where he was born, from Kentucky to Pennsylvania to Germany. His father was "from PA" and perhaps his grandfather was "from Germany," but those details are yet to be proved. Christian was a common given name at the time of his birth in families with German ethnic backgrounds. He spent his childhood years in Kentucky and had three younger siblings, Hester, Jacob and Michael. His mother died when the children were young. His father remarried in 1803 before Christian was eight years old and Mary "Polly" Kinder became his stepmother, and was the mother who reared Christian and his siblings. Half-brothers and half-sisters were born and the Bear family grew in numbers.

When Christian was a young man, his father purchased land across the Ohio in Indiana Territory. After the threat of conflict with the native-Americans had abated, the Bear family moved from their Henry County, KY, home to settle in Jefferson County, IN in March of 1814. We can imagine that Christian, along with his brothers and their father John worked hard, clearing the woodlands, hewing logs, and building the cabins needed to house their growing family. As the older boys married, portions of the 160 acres were allotted to them and they had separate cabins for their families on the Bear farm.

Soon after coming to Indiana, Christian married Nancy Hall, born in 1799, daughter of William and Sarah Hall. The Bear and Hall families either knew each other when they lived in Kentucky or met after the Bears settled in Jefferson County, Indiana. Although their exact marriage date is uncertain, it is estimated that Christian Bear married Nancy Hall between 1814 and 1817; no marriage record has been found in Indiana or Kentucky. They had two sons before the Census was taken in August 1820, as indicated in the family composition: Head of household Christian Barr, age 16-25, with 2 males under 10 years, and one female age 16-25 (wife Nancy). Christian was "engaged in agriculture."

During the next decade, four more children were born to Nancy and Christian: Henry, Sarah, Madison, and Mary, as indicated by the numbers and ages of children in the 1830 Census (no names except head of household). Christian and Nancy joined the Manville Christian Church (originally known as the Christian Church of Milton Township) in the decade of its founding, sometime during the 1830s.

Christian, a farmer and land owner, had little or no schooling and could not read or write, as indicated by his X mark on legal documents. Sometimes disputes arose between him and his neighbors. In 1820 he was found "guilty of affray" with John Cox [Jeff. Co. Court record Book C, p. 49], meaning that he had been involved in a public fight or brawl. In 1826, a slander case "Christian Bear vs. Thomas Winsow," went to trial before a jury. Bear claimed that Winsow had called him a hog thief in front of several people in February 1826, and also had accused him of stealing one hog on two different occasions and another time of "stealing a herd of fifty hogs from another man." The jury found for the plaintiff (Bear) and issued a judgment against defendant (Winsow) of $25 plus costs [Court Order Book D:32]. It is interesting to note that Thomas Winsow had been one of the appraisers of the estate of Christian Bear's father in 1823.

The Agricultural Censuses of Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN, in 1850 and 1860 provide an opportunity to look at production on the Bear farm in those years. In 1850 Christian Bear had 100 acres improved and 35 acres unimproved (probably woodlands) and real estate valued at $2,000. Next to him, three of his sons owned parcels of the farm. William had 13 acres; John had 20 acres, Madison Bear had 20 acres, all "improved" land.

In 1823 Christian's father John Bear died. Eleven years later, when his Estate was finally settled 18 May 1834 (Deed Book J, p. 189), son Christian bought the 160-acre Bear farm for $100. In the 1830 Census of Jefferson Co., IN, p. 240, Christian and his family lived next to the household of his stepmother, Mary (Kinder) "Bare." Again in 1840, the Census showed the family of Christian "Bare", head of household, and "female" (wife Nancy), both of age between 40-49, living next to Mary Bare in Milton Township, two girls and several boys.

There were nine children in the family of Christian and Nancy Bear - two daughters and seven sons. By 1850, one daughter and four sons were married; several had started families of their own. Their daughter Mary Bear married in the summer of 1850. Three sons remained at home to help their father on the farm. One son married in 1853 and only the youngest two sons were at home in 1860. The eldest, William Hall Bear, predeceased his parents, passing away sometime in between 1860 -1868. Their son Henry took up arms and served the Union in the Civil War. Two of their grandsons also joined infantry regiments from Indiana.

When Christian died 23 Mar 1868, the farm was bequeathed to his widow Nancy as specified in his Last Will and Testament, written on 22 March 1868 signed with his X mark. He appointed Franklin Joyce as Executor. All real and personal property was to go to his wife Nancy as long as she remained his widow. Upon her death, the proceeds of the sale of all real and personal property was to be divided equally among his children (not named in the Will), Nancy died two years later, on 8 March 1870, and son Madison Bear became owner of the farm.

NANCY HALL BEAR

Christian Bear's wife, Nancy Hall, daughter of William and Sarah Hall, was born in 1799 probably in KY, although some records have her birth place as Indiana. In the 1910 Census, her son Solomon J. reported that his mother was born in KY. Her father's name appears in early tax lists in Kentucky and in Indiana Territorial records. It is likely that Nancy moved with her parents across the Ohio to southern Indiana in about 1808. Her father, William Hall, a Revolutionary War veteran, settled in what is now Jefferson Co., IN, in 1808; he was the "first white settler on bottom land in the county." Nancy and Christian Bear were married sometime before the Census of 1820. The date and place of their marriage is unknown; perhaps they were married in Dearborn Co., IN, and if so, the record was probably destroyed in a Court House fire in 1826. Some old family records show 14 March 1814 as their marriage date. That was the day that John Bear and son Christian "entered the land" to settled in Jefferson County and it may have become a tradition that Christian and Nancy were married on that date. This mystery is left to future Bear researchers to solve.

Nancy's father, William Hall, died in April 1844 and her mother, Sarah Hall, applied for a pension as widow of a Revolutionary War soldier. One of those whose sworn testimony was taken in support of the pension application was Christian Bear, who signed his X mark on the document. Nancy and Christian cared for Nancy's aging mother in their home after she became a widow until her death in February 1851. The 1850 Census recorded Sarah Hall's age as 95 (more likely about age 88); perhaps no one really knew her true age.

Nancy Hall Bear, a farm wife and mother, is listed as an Indiana pioneer in "Pioneer Women of Jefferson County." Nancy was ill in the winter of 1869-70 and her daughter-in-law, Catherine Bice Bear was caring for her when Catherine, only about age 50, died suddenly in February and a month later, Nancy died at age 70 (in March, 1870). She was buried beside Christian who had died in 1868. The family cemetery on their farm in Milton Township is on a knoll overlooking the Indian-Kentuck Creek, near the present Bear Bridge. Tombstones marking their graves were still readable in the 1990s but are deteriorating.

The Bear family burial ground sits on a knoll overlooking the Indian-Kentuck Creek, on the land first purchased in 1812 from the U.S. Government at the land office in Jeffersonville, Indiana. The farm was owned by John Bear, then by his son Christian, then by Christian's son Madison Bear until 1902, then by Madison Bear's children. This farm remained in the Bear family for just 100 years. The cemetery is located at 1010 N. Brookburg-Manville Road, Madison, Indiana. Tombstones of Christian and Nancy Bear were readable in the 1990s. Photographs on p. 29 were taken by descendant, Carol Day Crawford. The cemetery has many unmarked "field stones" that may have been placed over the graves of other family members.

Generation No. 1

1. Christian[1] BEAR (John[A]) was born 17 Jul 1795 in KY (age 55 in 1850 Census), and died 23 Mar 1868 in Jefferson Co., IN, Milton Township, age 72 y 8 m 6 d; bur. on Bear farm in family cemetery. He married Nancy HALL Bef. 1818 in unknown place before 1820 Census (M/R not found), daughter of William HALL and Sarah ...?.... She was born 09 Sep 1799 in probably KY, and died 18 Mar 1870 in Jefferson Co., IN, age 70 y 6 m 9 d; bur. with husband.

Notes for Christian BEAR:
Christian, first-born son of John Bear and his first wife, whose name may have been Esther Newcomer, was probably born in KY. His date of birth has been calculated from his age and date of death inscribed on his tombstone. His siblings were Hester Bear who married (1) William Cobb and (2) William Perry, Jacob Bear, and Michael Bear. Christian married Nancy Hall, daughter of William Hall, an early settler in Jefferson Co., IN, and a veteran of the Revolutionary War. In early tax and voters' lists, Christian's name was sometimes spelled Bare. Christian is listed as head of household in Indiana in the 1820 federal Census with surname spelled "Barr." When John Bear died in 1823 and his Estate was settled in 1834 (Deed Book J, p. 189), Christian bought the 160 acre Bear farm in Milton Township for $100. He died 23 March 1868 at age 72, leaving the Bear farm to his widow Nancy. When Nancy died two years later, at age 70, the children and grandchildren were heirs to the estate, and their son Madison Bear became owner of the farm.

Generation No. 2

2. William Hall[2] BEAR (Christian[1], John[A]) was born abt. 1818 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 42 in June 1860 Cens), and died Bet. Jun 1860 - Jan 1869 in KY? IN (?). He married Martha Jane GREEN 22 Jul 1840 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), daughter of Joseph GREEN. She was born 11 Nov 1823 in Ohio (age 36 in 1860 Cens; 76 in 1900 Cens), and died 06 Mar 1907 in Port Fulton, Clark Co., IN; bur. 3/8/1907, Eastern Cemetery, Jeffersonville, IN - no marker.

Notes for William Hall BEAR:
William Hall Bear was probably one of two young male children listed in the household of Christian "Barr" in the August 1820 Census in Jefferson Co., IN. Bear family researchers have different opinions regarding the year of William's birth - 1818, 1819, or 1820 (?). William is believed to be the first-born child of Christian and Nancy Bear, born sometime between 1817 - 1819 in Jefferson Co., IN. Although the 1850 Census recorded his age as 30, the 1860 Census gave his age as 42, which may be more accurate.
William Hall Bear married Martha Green in Indiana in 1840. In 1850, they lived next to Christian Bear in Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN. The Agricultural Census of 1850 showed that William Bear owned 13 acres valued at $260, had 3 horses and 10 swine valued at $110, and raised 500 bushels of corn that year.
William and Martha moved to northern Kentucky in the 1850s, and on to Monroe Co., AR, before 1860. The family lived in Arkansas for a short time and were counted there in the Census of 1860. They moved back to Kentucky that year, to Trimble County, where their youngest son, John E., was born in Sept 1860. Trimble County is directly across the Ohio River from Jefferson Co., IN.
Not only has there been a question regarding his birth date, but William's exact date of death remains a mystery. It seems likely that he was deceased before his father Christian Bear died - March 1868. William's widow Martha remarried in January of 1869. After his mother Nancy Hall Bear died in March 1870, the estate papers list among the heirs "the children of William Bear, deceased." Some of these children were minors. At this time, we can only conclude that William Hall Bear died in the 1860s and that perhaps he was buried on his father Christian Bear's farm in the family cemetery, either without a grave marker or with a marker that is no longer existent.
Martha Green Bear married (2) George Bowen in 1869. In the 1870 Census, Martha, and her second husband George Bowen (spelled Boin by the Census taker), were in Switzerland Co., IN. The household consisted of George and Martha, three sons of George by his previous marriage, and two of Martha's children, Sarah and John E. Bear. Two of William H. and Martha's other children, Christian F. and Cynthia A. Bear, lived with their uncle, John Bear, in 1870. Ten years later, in the 1880 Census, Martha's name was listed as "Bear;" she was a widow, living with her unmarried sons, Charles and John E. Bear, and daughter Sarah Bear in Clark Co., IN. She died in March 1907; she is buried in Jeffersonville, IN.

Notes for William BEAR:
William was born in Trimble Co., KY, son of Willam Hall Bear. He was age 2, b. KY, living with parents in Arkansas when the Census was taken in June 1860. The family probably returned to Trimble Co., KY, before October and young William died there on Oct. 17 (before his 3rd birthday).

Notes for John E. BEAR:
John E. Bear was listed as a minor heir of his grandparents' Estate in 1870, as "son of William H. Bear, deceased." John was probably born at about the time of his father William's death. He was age 59 in Jan 1920 Census and 70 in April 1930 Census; if accurate, he was b. in 1860 which is consistent with his age in 1880 and 1900 Census records. John never married. He lived with his mother in 1900 and after she died in 1907, he boarded first with the Bennetts and later with the Petit family. He resided and worked in the Ohio River valley in Clark County, IN, until his death in 1938, and is buried in Jeffersonville, Clark Co., IN.

3. John[2] BEAR (Christian[1], John[A]) was born abt. 1819 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 31 in 1850 Cens, 40 in 1860; 51 in 1870), and died 12 Oct 1879 in Jefferson Co., IN; may be bur. in family cemetery on parents' farm. He married Catherine BICE 25 Mar 1840 in Madison, Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), daughter of John BICE and Phebe DEMAREE. She was born abt. 1820 in IN (age 30 in 1850 Cens; 39 in 1860), and died 14 Feb 1870 in Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN; may be bur. on Christian Bear's farm.

Notes for John BEAR:
John, son of Christian and Nancy Hall Bear, was named for his grandfather John Bear. He is believed to be slightly younger than his brother William Hall Bear. Based on John's age as recorded in various census records, he could have been born in 1818, 1819, or 1820. This researcher has chosen to use "about 1819", assigning him as the second son born before the August 1, 1820 Census day.
He married Catherine Bice in 1840 in Jefferson Co., IN, and may have been living on the farm with John's parents in the 1840 Census. Perhaps John and Catherine moved to Missouri for a short time in the mid-1840s, then returned to Indiana before 1850. They lived in the city of Madison in 1850. John was a farmer and in the year ending June 1, 1850, he had 20 acres next to his parents' farm in Milton Township, and owned 4 horses, 1 milk cow and 30 swine; his livestock was valued at $195. His farm produce that year included 1000 bushels of Indian corn, 6 tons of hay, and 50 lbs. of butter. He was still farming in Milton Township in 1860. His wife Catherine was taking care of John's aging mother, Nancy Hall Bear, when she died suddenly in the winter of 1870 (see notes below).
When John died, his brother Madison Bear was appointed Administrator of the Estate on 15 Oct 1879. The Jefferson County Circuit Court record has this entry: "Estate of John Bear, Dec'd. Madison Bear, Adm. Comes now said Administrator this 21st day of October and files bond in the sum of one thousand dollars with Henry Bear as surety, his former bond not being sufficient under the law to cover the personal property of said Estate." The final settlement of John Bear's estate was on 25 Sept 1880 after the court determined that Madison Bear had fulfilled his administrator's job and was "finally discharged from the further execution of the duties." John Bear's sons, and grandsons spelled their surname "BAIR" in their adult years.

Notes for Catherine Bice:
Catherine (Bice) Bear was born about 1820 in Indiana. A study of Census records 1830-1850 indicates that her parents were John and Phebe Bice who lived in Jefferson County in 1830; they probably moved into Indiana from Kentucky between 1815 and 1817. Their family in 1830 consisted of John Bice, age 50-59 (b. 1771-1780), 4 males (probably sons)--one age 5-9, one 10-14, one 15-19, one 20-29; female age 30-39 (probably John's wife Phebe, b. 1790-1799), and females--two under 5 yrs., one 5-9, two 10-14, two 15-19. Some may have died in childhood. Those known to be living in 1850 were Tina Bice, John A. Bice, Catherine Bice Bear, Letitia Bice Alverson, and Phebe Bice, and two who may be their children Mary F. Bice Lansberry and Dennis Bice. Catherine's mother, Phebe, married (2) Henry C. Banta in 1846 in Jefferson County; he was not with her in 1850 when the census record had Phebe Banta, 59, living with Letitia and James Alverson in Jefferson Co., along with several of the Bice children. Catherine Bice Bear died suddenly in 1870 at age 49 when their youngest child was about age 10. The Madison, IN, daily newspaper on 15 Feb 1870 had the story: "Died - Mrs. John Bear on Indian Kentuck." It noted the following: "Mrs. John Bear, wife of John Bear living on Indian Kentuck Creek, while tending her mother-in-law [Nancy], who was quite sick, went out into the yard, and not returning, a search was made for her, when she [Catherine] was found lying dead." She was probably buried on the Christian Bear farm in the family cemetery, but no grave stone has been identified.

21 ii. Sophronia "Sophie" BEAR, born abt. 1842 in IN (age 7 in 1850 Cens); died in Jefferson Co., IN (?). She married David DANNER 24 Apr 1858 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R); born abt. 1827 in IN (age 33 in 1860 Cens); died in IN (?).

Notes for Sophronia "Sophie" BEAR:
Sophia was listed with John and Catherine Bear in the 1850 Census and "Sophonia" Bear married David Danner in 1858 in Jefferson Co., IN. In the 1860 Census, David Danner and "Sophe" (Indexed: Saphe) lived next to John and Catherine (Bice) Bear; however, the Census has Sophie's age as 11 years (should it be age 17?) She has not been found in the 1870 Census under any surname or with any spelling of her given name - Sophronia, Sophie, Sophe, etc. Did she die as a young woman? Vail's Undertaker record has a Mrs. Danner" who died in Jefferson Co., IN, 6 Feb 1870; however, no further information was found and Sophia was not listed in the 1870 IN Mortality Schedule.

4. Henry[2] BEAR (Christian[1], John[A]) was born 24 Oct 1822 in Jefferson Co., IN, and died 01 Sep 1897 in Madison, Jefferson Co., IN (D/R); bur. Bear family cemetery, Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN. He married (1) Mary "Polly" HALL 10 Jan 1850 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R). She was born abt. 1829 in IN (age 20 in 1850 Census), and died Bef. Mar 1882 in IN (?), date and place of death unknown. He married (2) Lavina HAGY 23 Mar 1882 in Carroll Co., KY (M/R). She was born abt. 1833 in KY? (age 48 at marriage), and died Aft. 1911.

Notes for Henry BEAR:
Henry married (1) Mary "Polly" Hall in January 1850. Henry and Mary Bear were counted twice in the 1860 Census in Jefferson Co., IN (see sources below). Mary Hall is believed to be Henry's distant cousin. In 1862, after the Civil War began, he enrolled in the Militia in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN. He was age 39, married with three young children at that time. He later enlisted as a Pvt. and served in Co. E, 31st Reg't. for eleven months from 22 Sept 1864 to 18 Aug 1865. His wife and children lived in Indiana during the Civil War. When he returned home, Henry and his family moved across the Ohio River to Kentucky (about 1866). They lived in Carroll Co., KY in 1880.
There is confusion over Henry's marriages. Was he married twice or three times? Dr. Lowry H. Bear, nephew, stated in a 1944 letter that Henry married "first, Polly Hall and second a ... Brown." Some family group sheets have listed Mae Brown as his first wife. Henry was age 27 when he married Mary "Polly" Hall, so he could have been previously married; however, no marriage record has been found for Henry Bear and Mae Brown in Indiana or Kentucky. If Mae Brown was Henry's second wife, was she the wife called "Mary", age 59, with him in the 1880 Census, or was his wife Mary Hall Bear still living in June 1880? He married Lavina Hagy in March 1882, a "late in life" marriage, with no children. Based on their 1882 Marriage Record that stated it was a "second marriage for both," and in the absence of any records proving that Henry married Mae Brown, this author and some of Henry's descendants, decided to omit Mae Brown in this history as one of Henry's wives.

Henry received a Civil War pension and Lavina Bear applied for a Widow's Pension in 1911, several years after Henry's death. Henry died in Jefferson County in 1897 and is buried in the Bear cemetery on the family farm in Milton Township according to the county death record and local newspaper story. The grave was unmarked when readings were done in the late 20th century. Perhaps a plain field stone originally marked his grave.

Notes for Mary "Polly" Hall:
Was this Mary Hall (aka "Polly") a daughter of Squire Hall and granddaughter of William and Sarah Hall? If so, Mary Hall was a first cousin to Henry Bear, son of Christian and Nancy (Hall) Bear. It was not uncommon for cousins to marry in that time and place. Squire Hall and his wife Delilah Underwood Hall had a daughter named Mary "Polly" Hall, who was about the same age as this Mary "Polly" (Hall) Bear. This relationship needs further proof.

She married Charles NEAL 15 Jun 1847 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), son of Jesse NEAL and Nancy BROOKS. He was born abt. 1823 in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN (age 26 in 1850; 37 in 1860), and died 05 Jul 1881 in Brooksburg, Jefferson Co., IN (D/R).

Notes for Sarah BEAR:
Sarah (aka "Sallie") Bear married Charles Neal in 1847. They lived in towns on both sides of the Ohio River and some of their children were born in Indiana and some in Kentucky. In 1860 they lived in Milton, Trimble Co., KY, then moved back across the river to Jefferson County, IN. Sarah Neal was one of the heirs named in court records of the estate settlement of her parents, Christian and Nancy Bear, in Jefferson Co., IN, in 1870. Charles and Sarah and three adult children resided in Madison in 1880; Charles worked on the Ohio River as a Steamboat Captain. Charles died a year later, in 1881. As a widow, Sarah lived in Indianapolis with her daughters, Dana Johnson and Nannie C. Neal. At age 75, Sarah Neal was counted in the June 1900 Census with her daughter Dana Johnson and family. Most of Sarah's children died young, and the only two of her children surviving in 1900 were Nannie and Dana. Sarah died in January 1908 in Indianapolis at age 83. Her Death Certificate gives place of burial as Madison, IN; she is buried in Springdale Cemetery.

Children of Sarah BEAR and Charles NEAL are:

34 i. Nancy C. "Nannie"[3] NEAL, born abt. 1848 in Indiana (age 2 yrs in 1850 Cens; 12 in 1860); died 05 Apr 1930 in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN; bur. Crown Hill Cemetery (no marker).

Notes for Nancy C. "Nannie" NEAL:
Nancy (aka Nannie) Neal was probably the first-born child of Charles and Sarah Bear Neal. Census records vary widely regarding her age. She was age 2 in 1850, 12 in 1860, 19 in 1870 and 25 in 1880, 46 in 1900, 48 in 1910, 59 in 1920, 68 in 1930 (on census and on Death Certificate). Perhaps she preferred to keep her age a secret. The 1900 Census has her birth date as February 1854 which cannot be correct if she is the same daughter as Nannie Bear, age 2, in 1850 (were there two "Nannie" Neals in this family?).
Before 1900, Nannie moved to the city of Indianapolis, where she lived with her married sister Dana Johnson, and worked as a dressmaker. After Dana died, Nannie lived with her nephew, Charles O. Johnson, and his family in Washington Twp., Marion Co., IN. Nannie was a maiden lady who never married. She outlived all of her siblings and died in April 1930, a few days after the Census day. She is buried in the Johnson family plot in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis, with her sister Dana Neal Johnson.

Johnson and it may be that he did not know when Aunt Nannie was born.
--Crown Hill Cemetery burial records, Indianapolis, IN: Nannie Neal, bur. 7 April 1930 in Lot 762 of Section 59, Grave #3, in Charles O. Johnson's family plot. There is no marker on her grave as noted on visit to Cemetery in June 2009.

35 ii. Charles E. NEAL, born 1849 in IN (infant, age 9 months in 1850 Cens); died Bet. Oct 1850 - Jun 1860 in IN or KY (?), probably in childhood; not with parents in 1860 Census.

\+ 36 iii. Mary Elizabeth NEAL, born abt. 1850 in IN (age 10 in 1860 Cens); died Bef. 1880 in IN or KY (?).

37 iv. Lydia Eliza NEAL, born abt. 1853 in Trimble Co., KY (age 6 in 1860 Cens); died Bef. Jun 1900.

Notes for Lydia Eliza NEAL:
Lydia (aka Eliza) was a child of Charles and Sarah Neal listed in their family in the 1860 and 1870 Census. She was not with them in 1880 (either married or perhaps deceased). She died sometime before the 1900 Census which reported that Sarah Neal had only two living children - they are known to be Nannie and Dana.

38 v. William H. NEAL, born abt. 1855 in Indiana (age 4 yrs in 1860 Cens); died Bet. Jun 1880 - Jun 1900 in IN (Jefferson Co.?).

Notes for William H. NEAL:
William was listed as a child in Sarah Neal's family in 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census records. He died before the 1900 Census, as indicated by the fact that Sarah had only two children still living in 1900. Jefferson County, Indiana Death Records held by the Jefferson Co. Historical Society, Madison, IN, has Wm. H. Neal (no age or date of birth) who died 14 June 1888. Vail's Undertaker records, Madison, IN, online list "Wm. Neall," d. 8/3/1895, Trimble Co., KY. [One of these may be Wlliam, son of Charles and Sarah Bear Neal.]

39 vi. Amanda T. NEAL, born abt. 1857 in Trimble Co., KY (age 2 in 1860 Cens; not with parents in 1870); died Bef. 1870 in IN? or KY (?).

Notes for Amanda T. NEAL:
Amanda's name is only listed once in the family of Sarah and Charles Neal and that was in the 1860 Census, age 2, born in Trimble Co., KY. She is not mentioned in 1870 and presumably, she died in childhood. No further records have been found.

\+ 40 vii. Mandana Frances "Dana" NEAL, born Mar 1863 in IN (age 17 in 1880 Cens); died 05 Aug 1924 in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN (D/C); bur. Crown Hill Cemetery.

6. Madison[2] BEAR (Christian[1], John[A]) was born 04 May 1827 in Jefferson Co., IN, and died 11 Jun 1908 in Jefferson Co., near Brooksburg, IN, age 81 y 1 m 7 d (dates of birth & death on tombstone); bur. Brooksburg Cemetery. He married Mary Jane JOYCE 03 Aug 1848 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), daughter of Charles JOYCE and Mary ...?.... She was born 27 Jan 1831 in KY? NC?, and died 04 Jun 1912 in (near) Brooksburg, IN, age 81 y 4 m 8 d; bur. Brooksburg Cemetery.

Notes for Madison BEAR:
Madison was a farmer who lived all of his life in Jefferson County, IN. He married Mary J. Joyce in 1848 and they were parents of eight children, of whom at least six lived to adulthood. In 1850 the couple owned 20 acres of improved land worth $500 next to his father Christian Bear and brothers William and John. He had one horse, one milk cow and 6 swine; they made 50 lbs. of butter and raised 2 tons of hay and 500 bushels of Indian corn on the farm that year. Madison purchased the Bear farm after the death of his parents. The farm's owner was listed as "M. Bar" on a Plat Map of Milton Township in 1878. In 1887-88 the Jefferson County Gazetteer listed Madison Bear owning 165 acres, post office Brooksburg. This was probably the original 160+ acres purchased by his grandfather John Bear, conveyed to Christian Bear after John died, and then passed down to Madison Bear in the estate settlement of Christian Bear. The large farm is located on the Indian-Kentuck in the hills, about two miles north of Brooksburg. Madison Bear conveyed the Bear home place to his children on 17 Sept 1902 and the farm, originally purchased in 1812, remained in the Bear family for just under 100 years. In the 1990s a new home was built over the old foundation and on the old cellar wall the name "CHAS. R. BEAR 1881" is written in large printed letters (see photo).
Madison Bear was a "member in good standing" of the Brooksburg Methodist Church. He and his wife Mary Jane are laid to rest in the Brooksburg Cemetery, near their farm and adjacent to the Church where they worshipped. A large tombstone marks their graves.

William Andrew (aka "Andy") and his wife Manta (Buchanan) Bear had no children. He was mentioned many times in the local newspaper, the Brooksburg Sun, in the 1895-97 period, i.e. "Our young friend, W. A. Bear, invites folks to attend the Old Settlers Meeting." "He was a member of [Pleasant Ridge] Methodist Church and a Christian worker" (Sun., 11/19/1896). His occupation was the "Merchandise business." The newspaper reported that W. A. Bear, brother of Dr. L. H. Bear and cousin of Hon. P. E. Bear, bought a store at Hicks in November 1896. He and brother Edwin purchased a General Store from the Lochards in Hicks (a town that no longer exists) in Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., IN, 29 June 1897. Andy's wife died in 1927 and he was a widower for 22 years. In 1945, he was interviewed by Mary Hill, a Jefferson County historian, who wrote that he was "thriving". He is buried beside his wife Manta in Brooksburg Cemetery, Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN.

48 viii. Alice BEAR, born abt. 1869 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 1 yr in 1870 Cens); died Bef. 1880 in Jefferson Co., IN (probably).

Notes for Alice BEAR:
Alice Bear, age 1 year, was with the family of Madison and Mary J. Bear in the 1870 Census in Saluda Township, Jefferson Co., IN. She was not with the family in the 1880 Census, although she would have been only about 11 years of age. Some family records say she "died young." Alice has not been found in the 1900 Census, and she was not mentioned as a surviving child in the 1908 obituary of her father, Madison Bear.

7. Mary J.[2] BEAR (Christian[1], John[A]) was born 30 Sep 1829 in Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN (age 51 in 1880 Cens), and died 29 Jun 1900 in Milton Township. Jefferson Co., IN; bur. on Phillips farm, Dry Fork, Shelby Twp., Jefferson Co., IN. She married (1) Gabriel PHILLIPS, Sr. 29 Sep 1850 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), son of Presley PHILLIPS and Sarah HALL. He was born abt. 1829 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 20 in 1850 Census), and died abt. 1854 in probably Jefferson Co., IN (no death record found); may be buried on Phillips farm in Shelby Twp., Jeff. Co. IN. She married (2) Henry H. PHILLIPS 03 Feb 1856 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), son of Presley PHILLIPS and Sarah HALL. He was born abt. 1834 in Jefferson Co., IN (25 in 1860, 46 in 1880), and died 16 May 1897 in Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., IN; bur. on Phillips farm on Dry Fork.

Notes for Mary J. BEAR:
Mary Bear lived all of her life in Jefferson Co., IN, born in Milton Township on the Bear farm, lived in Shelby Township on the Phillips farm after marriage, and died in Milton Township. She was born either in 1829 or 1830; her birth year was 1830 as calculated from age at death in her Obituary in 1900; however, her father's household in the 1830 Census had 2 females, one under age of 5, which may have been Mary, an infant daughter. Mary was not living with her parents when the June 1850 Census was taken, and her name does not appear anywhere in that census, either as Mary Bear or Mary Phillips. In September 1850 Mary Bear married (1) Gabriel Phillips. It was a short marriage during which two sons were born. No record has been found of her first husband's death or burial; however, in 1856 when their sons were young, Mary married (2) Henry Phillips and they had seven children. Mary was a first cousin to both of her husbands - her mother Nancy Hall Bear and her mother-in-law, Sarah Hall Phillips, were sisters.
In a Jefferson Co. court record as an heir of Christian Bear, her name appeared as "Mary J. Phillips" and she and her husband Henry both signed with their X marks indicating that they could not write their names. Mary received the sum of $29.66 from the Estate of her parents, Christian and Nancy Bear. In the 1870 Census, all nine of Mary's children were at home, the two sons by her first husband, and the seven children born in her second marriage. The 1870 census taker was confused. Besides misspelling names, he listed Mary's husband as Squire Phillips who was actually Henry's brother, and then recorded Squire's name as Henry. The two brothers and their families lived next to each other in Shelby Township on Dry Fork Road near Canaan. In 1880 Mary and Henry had six children and two grandchildren living with them. Henry died in May 1897. Mary has not been located in the 1900 Census, although she did not die until after the June 1st Census day. When she died from asthma in the summer of 1900, Mary was in Milton Township, probably with her Bear relatives. Her funeral was held at her home on Dry Fork, with burial in the family graveyard.

Notes for Gabriel Phillips, Sr.
Gabriel was the fourth of eight children born to Presley and Sarah Hall Phillips, early settlers in Jefferson Co., KY. His maternal grandfather William Hall served in the Revolutionary War and later settled in Kentucky. Gabriel was counted in the Census of 1850 in the household of his parents Presley and Sarah. That is the only Census record where his name appears, although he was probably with his parents in the 1840 and perhaps the 1830 census in Indiana, when only heads of household were named. After Gabriel married Mary Bear in September 1850, they lived in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN, and the next year, in August 1851, Gabriel was listed among the adult male voters in a township election. Gabriel and Mary had two sons: James Perry, known as Perry, and Gabriel, known as "Gabe," named for his father. While no death or burial record has been found for Gabriel, Sr., it is presumed that he died between 1853 (when his second son was born) and February 1856 when his wife Mary married (2) his younger brother Henry H. Phillips. When Mary Bear Phillips died in June 1900, her obituary told of the burial of her husband Henry on the Phillips farm in Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., but made no mention of Mary's first husband, Gabriel (whose death must have occurred some 45 years earlier). It seems likely that Gabriel was also buried in the family graveyard.

Notes for Henry Phillips:
Henry H., sixth child of Presley and Sarah (Hall) Phillips, married Mary (Bear) Phillips, his sister-in-law. Mary was previously married for a short time to his older brother Gabriel and they had two sons. Henry bought part of the family farm in September 1859 from his widowed mother, Sarah Phillips; it was located in Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., IN, facing Dry Fork Creek. Henry and Mary then enlarged the old Phillips house, in about 1859-60, adding an upper story above the original one-story structure that was probably built in the 1820s. Henry planted fruit trees on the land. In 1862 Henry, age 28, a farmer, signed up in the Militia Enrollment, Civil War, Indiana, Shelby Township, as was required of all young men at that time. In 1887-88 Henry was listed in the Jefferson Co. Directory as owner of 40 acres in Shelby Township, and Squire Phillips, his brother, owned 173 acres, probably adjacent to Henry's farm. Later Squire purchased the land from Henry. Four generations of the Phillips family owned this land which had been originally purchased by Presley Phillips from the U.S. Government by patent deed. It is hilly and heavily wooded. The old family graveyard up on the hillside behind the house is no longer in existence, and the house was demolished a few years ago, before July 2008.

Notes for William PHILLIPS:
William was the second child born to Mary Bear and her second husband Henry H. Phillips. He was listed with parents in 1870 Census, age 11 (no middle initial), living on a farm in Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., IN. In the 1880 Census, he was not with his parents and he has not been found in that Census. He may be the William Phillips, 20, in the 1880 Mortality Schedule, Jefferson Co., IN. Because the name William Phillips is such a common name, he has been difficult to find. There were several persons with the same name in the same county during his lifetime. His mother, Mary Bear Phillips, died 29 June 1900 and her obituary said she had seven children surviving. William was not one of them. Also, when William's half brother, J. Perry Phillips, died in 1910, his obituary named his three surviving brothers, Solomon, Gabriel, and Charles.

8. Joseph Ellsworth[2] BEAR (Christian[1], John[A]) was born 14 Apr 1832 in Jefferson Co., IN, and died 22 Apr 1910 in IN, of pneumonia, age 78; bur. Springdale Cemetery, Madison, IN. He married Margaret WHITMORE 03 Feb 1853 in Gallatin Co., KY (M/R), daughter of Martin WHITMORE and Martha BRITON. She was born 15 Nov 1832 in OH (age 18 in 1850; 67 in 1900 Cens), and died 23 Nov 1908 in probably Madison, IN; bur. Springdale Cemetery.

Notes for Joseph Ellsworth BEAR:
Joseph Ellsworth Bear, born in 1832, married Margaret Whitmore in Gallatin Co., KY, in 1853. Joseph and Margaret lived on a farm in Milton Township, Jefferson County, IN, in 1860, near other Bear families. Both Joseph and Margaret were members of the Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church. In 1862 at age 30, Joseph registered in the Civil War Militia Enrollment. He was a farmer and land owner. They had six children, four daughters and two sons. Both sons studied law and were well known in legal circles in southeastern Indiana. A grandson, Attorney Donald R. Bear, was also a prominent lawyer in Madison, IN. Joseph and wife Margaret owned 69 acres in Bee Camp, Jefferson Co., IN, in 1890-1891. They moved to Hanover, IN, before June 1900. He died in 1910 and his obituary said Joseph was a "religious and highly respected citizen." Joseph and wife Margaret are buried in Springdale Cemetery, Madison, IN.
Notes for Margaret Whitmore:
Margaret, daughter of Martin John and Martha (Briton) Whitmore, was single, age 18, b. OH, in the 1850 Census record. The 1860 and 1880 Census records also have her birthplace as OH. Other records show her place of birth as KY or PA. Her son, Atty. Solomon Bear, in the 1920 Census, said his mother was born in PA. The Bears and Whitmores were connected by marriage in several ways. Margaret's sister, Ann Eliza Whitmore, married Alfred Adams and her niece, Anna Adams, daughter of Ann Eliza Whitmore Adams, became the wife of Margaret's brother-in-law, Solomon J. Bear.

Notes for Eliza "Lida" BEAR:
Eliza Bear was also called "Lida". In the 1880 Census, she was called "Eliza." She was a school teacher who died at age 21 years, unmarried. "A History of Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church", comp. by Bertha Lyons Bear in 1960, has a record of the baptism of Eliza, child of Joseph Bear, on 4 Sept 1881. The Jefferson County Death Records, held by the county Historical Society in Madison, show "Lida Bear" died 15 July 1892. She is buried in Springdale Cemetery, Madison, IN.

9. Perry E.[2] BEAR (Christian[1], John[A]) was born Sep 1839 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 11 in 1850; 21 in 1860), and died abt. 1903 in unknown place; bur. Olive Branch Cemetery, Jefferson Co., IN. He married (1) Elizabeth ("Lizzie") FAUGHT 19 Nov 1863 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), daughter of William FAUGHT and Amanda ...?.... She was born 1846 in IN (age 13 in 1860 Cens), and died Bef. 1875 in Jefferson Co., IN. He married (2) Atlanta ("Lanta") FAUGHT 05 Oct 1875 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), daughter of William FAUGHT and Amanda ...?.... She was born abt. 1853 in IN (age 7 in 1860 Cens; 26 in 1880 Cens), and died 20 Nov 1928 in Madison, IN, age 72; bur. Olive Branch.

Notes for Perry E. BEAR:
Perry E. Bear married twice. He first married Elizabeth Faught (aka "Lizzie") in 1863. They had five children and Lizzie died while the children were young. They lived in Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN. After Lizzie died, he married her sister (2) Atlanta (aka "Lanta") Faught in 1875 and they had three children. The family moved to Hanover Township, Jefferson County, in the 1880s and owned a farm there. Records of Perry's birth year range from 1834 (age 36 on 1880 Census) to 1840 birth year on tombstone. Census records vary as to his age and year of birth. Also, his year of death is uncertain; the only record found is the year of death 1903 on his tombstone. A search was made of death records at the Jefferson Co., IN, Health Department and there is no record that he died in that county between 1897 and 1907. An obituary was not available in the local paper, the Madison Courier, because the newspapers from that period have not survived (as noted in Obituary Book in the Genealogy Department at the Madison-Jefferson Co. Public Library). Perry is buried in Olive Branch Cemetery. His wife, Atlanta Faught Bear, died in 1928 and is buried beside him.
Notes for Atlanta ("Lanta") Faught:

Atlanta married her brother-in-law, Perry E. Bear, after his wife "Lizzie" Faught died. Atlanta is named as an heir in the Will of her father, William Faught. She received 1/7th of her father's estate. [See heirs in Will as noted below.] Atlanta outlived her husband, Perry E. Bear, by over 20 years. She lived with her son Irvin Bear in 1920 on a Jefferson County farm. Census records vary widely regarding her birth year from "about 1853" to "Dec. 1857." Her obituary and tombstone gave her age as 72 at death - in November 1928. She is buried beside her husband Perry in Olive Branch Cemetery. Sources:

Atlanta, daughter of Perry E. and Elizabeth (Faught) Bear, was named for her mother's sister, Atlanta Faught, who later became her stepmother. In 1886 she married James Dutson in Jefferson County, IN, and before 1900 they moved to Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN. James was working as a "carriage painter" in 1900. Later, he painted automobiles. They owned a home at 947 High Street in Center Township in Indianapolis. In 1922 when Atlanta's brother Ira Bear died, his funeral was held in the Dutson home. Atlanta died in 1926 and James died in 1936; they are buried in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Notes for George BEAR:
George Bear was named as a grandchild and heir in the Will of his maternal grandfather William Faught in 1884. The Will listed both George Bear and Georgia Bear, children of "Lizzie" Bear, deceased; however, in the 1880 Census, George was not living with his father, Perry Bear, nor was he with his sister Georgia in the home of his grandparents William and Amanda Faught in 1880. Notes for Georgia BEAR:
Georgia was a child of Perry and Elizabeth Bear. In 1884 when her maternal grandfather William Faught wrote his Will, he named Georgia Bear as one of the children of his deceased daughter, Lizzie Bear. Also, her name appears in old family records as a child of Perry Bear, and she is in the 1880 and 1900 Census records living with Faught relatives. She has not been found in 1910 or after in census, marriage, or death records.

Children of Perry BEAR and Atlanta FAUGHT are:

+ 69 i. Howard M.[3] BEAR, born 17 Apr 1877 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 3 in 1880 Cens); died 1958 in probably Jefferson Co., IN; bur. Dupont Cemetery, Lancaster Twp., Jefferson Co., IN.

Notes for Jessie BEAR:
Jessie, daughter of Perry E. and Atlanta (Faught) Bear, was born before the 1880 Census, and her name is in a Bible belonging to niece June Bear Ritchie. Jessie moved to the Indianapolis area and married Silas Simmons, a machinist. They had no children. She died as a young woman in Indianapolis according to family members. Census records indicate that she died between 1900-1910; her mother had three children living in 1900 and two living in 1910.

Evergreen Memorial Park, Riverside, CA. He married Anna ADAMS 12 Apr 1866 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), daughter of Alfred ADAMS and Ann WHITMORE. She was born May 1850 in IN (age 50 in June 1900 Cens), and died Aug 1919 in CA, age 69.

Notes for Solomon J. BEAR:
Solomon J. Bear was a member of the Pleasant Ridge Methodist "old log church" 1865-1900 in Jefferson Co., IN, according to the church history. He married Anna (Ann) Adams and they had five sons. They were a devoutly religious family and three of their sons became Methodist ministers. Another son, after serving in the Spanish-American War in the Philippines, returned as a Christian missionary in that country and died there, according to family tradition and church records. Solomon J. owned land and farmed in Milton Twp., Jefferson County, IN, in the Pleasant Ridge area. Later, he and his family moved into the town of Madison. Sometime between 1910 and 1919, they moved to Riverside County, CA, and his wife Ann died there in 1919. He was a widower living alone in Riverside Co., CA in January 1920, and died in December of that year at the home of his son Wilbur S. Bear. Solomon is buried in Evergreen Memorial Park, Riverside, CA.
Notes for Anna Adams:
Anna (aka Ann) was the daughter of Alfred and Ann Eliza (Whitmore) Adams. Her mother's sister, Margaret Whitmore, was married to Joseph E. Bear, one of Solomon J. Bear's brothers, so her brother-in-law was also the husband of her aunt. In the 1900 Census, Anna reported that her parents were both born in Kentucky, and her birth date was given as May 1850, which is consistent with age 30 in the 1880 Census. She died in California in August 1919 at age 69.

Generation No. 3

11. Nancy Jane[3] BEAR (William Hall[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born 07 Sep 1841 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 38 in 1880 Cens), and died 05 Jan 1893 in Jefferson Co., IN, age 51; bur. New Prospect Cemetery, Saluda Twp., Jefferson Co., IN. She married Benjamin F. SLATER 29 Dec 1858 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), son of Philip SLATER and Nancy LOVE. He was born Aug 1837 in IN (age 42 in 1880 Cens; 62 in 1900 Cens), and died 21 Jul 1908 in probably Jefferson Co., IN (Death Notice, Madison, IN, Courier).

Notes for Nancy Jane BEAR:
Nancy J. Bear was named as an heir ("Nancy Slater") in the court record of the estate of her grandparents, Christian and Nancy Bear, in 1870. She married Benjamin F. Slater (name also spelled Slaytor) in Indiana in 1858. They lived in Trimble Co., KY, when their first child was born. They were counted twice in the 1860 Census, once in June 1860 in Surrounded Hill, Monroe Co., AR, living next to Nancy's parents, William and Martha (Green) Bear and family, and again in August 1860 in Milton, Trimble Co., KY. After the War between the States began, Benjamin (recorded as "Benj. Slaytor") joined the Union Army, serving with Jefferson Co., IN, men in Co. K, 22nd Ind. Regiment - in the same company with Nancy's brother, Calvin Josiah Bear. It seems likely that the family lived on the Indiana side of the Ohio River during the Civil War years if Benjamin was serving in an Indiana regiment. In 1870 they lived in Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN, and before 1880 they had moved into Saluda Township, in the same county. Benjamin was a farmer and sons Calvin, 18, and William, 16, were working on the farm with their father in 1880. Nancy died in 1893 and Benjamin remarried. He and his second wife, Ida McDowell, had two daughters, Pearl and Silvia, born in 1894 and 1895. Benjamin died in July 1908 and Ida Slater was a widow in the 1910 Census.

77 i. Eliza[4] SLATER, born 24 Oct 1859 in Trimble Co., KY (infant in 1860 Cens; not with parents in 1870 Cens); died in KY (?); did she die young?.

Notes for Eliza SLATER:
Eliza was born in Trimble Co., KY. She and her parents were counted twice in the 1860 Census when Eliza was an infant. One census taker reported her age as 1/12 year while the other Census taker had 8/12 year. Her birth record gave her d.o.b. as 24 Oct 1859. She may have died in infancy or early childhood since she was not with her parents in 1870.

12. Calvin Josiah[3] BEAR (William Hall[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born 11 Nov 1843 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 26 in 1870 Cens), and died 10 Feb 1917 in Vevay, Switzerland Co., IN, age 73 (Obit.); bur. He married Josephine "Josie" (Johnson?) in 1904 and they lived in Fresno, CA, where he was working in a grocery store in 1910. They had no children. Family records had Josie's maiden name as Jackson; however, she was not found in census records with that name; it appears that she was Josie Johnson, daughter of Abraham and Sarah C. Johnson, born in 1880, in Switzerland Co., IN. In 1920 Oliver P. Bear was a real estate dealer in Fresno, CA. The couple still lived in Fresno in the Census of 1930 where Oliver was a grocer. Notes for Mary Elizabeth BEAR:
Mary E. Bear married David Smith in 1867. He is probably the David A. Smith who served in Co. D., 93rd Ind. Infantry 1862 - 1865. His residence was Vevay, IN, when he went into the Union Army. In 1870, Mary E. and David lived in Vevay, IN, and had two children: Lena Leota, 2, and infant son, Charles D. Smith. In 1880 the family lived in York Township, Switzerland County, near the Ohio River, where David was a "ferryman." In 1874 Mary E. and husband David signed a receipt for $2.85 due to her from the Estate of her grandfather Bear, in which she wrote: "please to pay to C. F. Bear the money that is coming to me from the Bear estate." They had four children by 1880 and nine before 1900, three were still living at home in 1900 - Charles D., Blaine E., and Louisa. The family lived in the same place in 1910 Census; their daughter Louisa was married but living at home with her parents. Family records indicate that Mary died in 1913, and it may be that both David and Mary died between 1910 and 1920.

Notes for Cynthia Ann BEAR:
Cynthia A. Tevis was one of the heirs in the final settlement of the Estate of her paternal grandparents, Christian and Nancy Bear, in 1874. After their father died and their mother remarried, Cynthia and her brother Christian went to live with their Uncle John Bear and his family and were counted in John's household in the 1870 Census. As a young girl, Cynthia united with the Methodist Church. On 20 June 1872 she married Arminius B. Tevis in the Morris M. E. Chapel, Brooksburg, the first wedding in the "new church." Record keepers had trouble spelling the name Arminius, who was likely named for the Dutch theologian, James (Jacob) Arminius (1560-1609). Cynthia's husband Arminius was the son of a well-known Methodist minister, Benjamin Tevis, who helped organize "Home Church" in 1830 on land near the Christian Bear farm in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN. A. B. and Cynthia Tevis had nine children and all lived to adulthood. Her year of birth has been debated - 1850, 1851, or 1852. She was born after the June 1850 Census; the 1860 Census gave her age as 10, the 1880 Census had age 27, and in 1900 her age was given as 47. In 1900 Cynthia and her husband Arminius were operating a boarding house at 417 Jefferson St. in Madison, IN. He died in 1911 and she died in 1914. They are buried in Springdale Cemetery, Madison.

He was born Mar 1860 in IN (age 49 in Apr 1910 Cens), and died Aft. 1909 in KY (?).

Notes for Sarah Frances "Sally" BEAR:
Sarah "Sally" Bear was a minor heir to her grandparents' estate in 1870, as child of William H. Bear, deceased. She was living with her mother Martha J. in the 1880 Census. She married Charles Martin in 1883 and they had a son Robert W., born in 1884. Family records show a daughter Maude P. Martin in this family. In 1900 Robert, age 15, lived with his Bear grandparents; however, his sister Maude is not with them. Sarah died in 1890 in Clark Co., IN. Charles remarried and lived in Hardin Co., KY, in 1910 Census with his second wife, Josie. There were no children living with him. When their son Robert married in December 1909, his marriage application gave his father's residence as St. John, KY. Sarah is buried in Eastern Cemetery, Jeffersonville, IN; a child of Charles Martin (not named), who died in 1893, is also buried in Eastern Cemetery. (Is this a child of Sarah and Charles?) More research is needed.

123 ii. Maude P. MARTIN, born May 1887 in IN (Clark Co.?). She married Albert JONES.

Notes for Maude P. MARTIN:
Little is known of this child, Maude, born in 1887. Her mother died before she was three years old, and she has not been found in the 1900 Census. According to family records, she married Albert Jones. More research is needed to locate this couple.

20. William Henry (BAIR)[3] BEAR (John[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born 1840 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 69 in Apr 1910 Cens), and died 01 Oct 1916 in Bollinger Co., MO; bur. Hahn Chapel Cemetery, near Marble Hill, MO. He married Lyda Jane JONES 03 Apr 1862 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), daughter of William JONES and Laura JANES. She was born May 1843 in IN (age 37 in 1880 Cens; 67 in 1910), and died 26 Aug 1926 in Bollinger Co., MO; bur. Hahn Chapel Cemetery with husband.

Notes for William Henry (BAIR) BEAR:
William H. Bear (Bair) was the eldest child of John and Catherine Bear. He signed up in the Militia Enrollment of 1862 in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN, at age 21, and was married that year to Lyda Jane Jones (called Jane). Their marriage was announced in the Madison daily newspaper on 4 April 1862 in the midst of news from battles raging in the War. They had two sons born before William left home to serve in the Union Army in the final year of the Civil War. William H. enrolled for a one-year enlistment on 30 Jan 1865 at Columbus, IN. He was described on his enrollment card as a farmer, 5 '6" tall with blue eyes, dark hair, of dark complexion, a native of Jefferson Co., IN. He was assigned to Co. D, 146th Reg't of Indiana Infantry, that was composed of men from Jefferson County. After the end of the Civil War, William H. mustered out at a Hospital in Baltimore, MD, in August 1865.

Later, in about 1878, he and his wife Jane and their family moved to Illinois and one son, Theodore, was born there. Then they moved on to southeast Missouri about 1879-80, and were counted as residents of Bollinger County, Lorance Township, in the June 1880 Census. Their surname was spelled BAIR in that Census and the Bair spelling carried down to William's descendants. William's sisters, Elizabeth Imel and Phebe Ellen Comley, and their families lived in the same county in MO in 1880. It seems likely that all of these related families moved together from IN to IL to MO.

William applied for a soldier's "invalid" pension on 22 June 1886. After he died in 1916, his wife Jane applied for a Civil War Widow's Pension. Some of William and Jane's adult children were married, living in MO in the 1900 - 1930 period. In 1920 Jane was living on the Bair farm in Bollinger County with her son Ed Bair. She died in 1926 and is buried beside William H. in the Hahn Chapel Cemetery, near Marble Hill, MO.

22. Elizabeth "Lizzie"[3] BEAR (John[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born abt. 1846 in MO (age 4 in 1850; 14 in 1860 Cens; 23 in 1870), and died Bet. 1890 - 1896 in IN (probably). She married Thomas IMEL 22 Aug 1867 in Jefferson Co. IN (M/R), son of Conrad IMEL and Tabitha ADAMSON. He was born abt. 1842 in IN (age 28 in 1870 Cens; 38 in 1880), and died 27 Apr 1912 in Grant Co., IN; bur. 4/30/1912 in Marion National Cemetery, Marion, Grant Co., IN.

Notes for Elizabeth "Lizzie" BEAR:
Elizabeth was the third child of John and Catherine Bear. An early census has her born in Missouri, but all of her siblings were born in Indiana. She married Thomas Imel, a veteran of the Civil War, in Jefferson Co., IN, after the War ended; they had four children born in Indiana, and moved to Illinois (about 1877) where son Harry was born. Then they moved to Bollinger County, MO. In 1880 they were farming near Elizabeth's sister Phebe Ellen (Bear) Comley and family and brother William H. Bear (Bair) and his family in southeastern Missouri, near Marble Hill, Bollinger County. Their youngest son, Albert Earl was born in 1883 in Missouri. Elizabeth's death record has not been found but from Thomas' veteran records, it has been estimated that her death probably occurred in the early 1890s. Thomas remarried in about 1895-96 (2) Huldah Cline Reed, a second marriage for both. Thomas, 68, and wife, 56, were living at the Soldiers Home in Lafayette, IN, in the Census of 1910; Huldah was working at the Home as a waitress. The children of Thomas and Elizabeth lived in several counties in Indiana and also in other states. Two sons moved to California. Their son, Walter, lived in Grant Co., IN, and Albert Earl lived in Vanderburgh Co., IN. Thomas died in April 1912 and is buried in the National Veteran's Cemetery, Grant Co., IN.

Walter J. (aka John Walter) Imel, born in Indiana, moved to Bollinger Co., MO, with his parents before 1880. His father Thomas, a veteran of the Civil War, was admitted to the Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in the 1890s and Walter Imel was listed as a resident of Marion, IN, the town where the Veterans Home was located. In 1900 Walter was working in Wayne Co., MI, as a stone mason, in the occupation of his Imel ancestors who built many of the stone houses in Jefferson Co., IN, in the 19th Century. He was married in Allen Co., IN, in 1914 to Minnie Knipsheeld (surname may be misspelled on M/R). William M. lived in Bollinger Co., MO, as a child. He moved to Michigan and married (1) Belle Abbott Parks in Michigan in 1899. Belle, born in Warsaw, IN, had been previously married and had three children; she was much older than William. He was a mill foreman in Muskegon, MI, and owned a home there in 1900. His brother Harry Imel and his wife and infant daughter lived with William and Belle. The census taker wrote poorly and crossed over Williams's age - b. 1856, age 44 (should be age 24). In 1910 he and wife Belle lived in Allen Co., IN, where William worked as a mill foreman. He married (2) Grace Langworthy Vanderhoof in 1922. In the 1930 Census, William and wife Grace lived in Los Angeles, CA, where William was a carpenter.

23. Phebe Ellen[3] BEAR (John[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born abt. 1849 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 1 yr in 1850 Cens; 10 in 1860), and died Aft. Jun 1880 in MO (?). She married Vernon Richard COMLEY 01 Jan 1867 in Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), son of James COMLEY and Mary VERNON. He was born 14 Jul 1845 in Madison, Jefferson Co., IN (age 35 in 1880 Census, 55 in 1900), and died 06 Mar 1914 in St. James, Phelps Co., MO, age 68; bur. Veterans Home Cemetery, St. James, MO.

Notes for Phebe Ellen BEAR:
Phebe Ellen Bear, called Ellen or Ella, was probably named for her maternal grandmother Phebe Bice. She married Vernon R. Comley at her home in Jefferson Co., IN, on New Year's Day 1867. They had four children. The family surname was spelled several ways in various records, including: Comley, Comely, and Comeley; younger generations in Missouri all spelled it Comely. Vernon Comley lived in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN, and as a young man he registered there in the 1862 Militia Enrollment after the Civil War began. He later enlisted in the Union Army, 13th Indiana Cavalry, Co. C, in December 1864, and served until after the end of the War. He came home and married Ellen Bear in Jefferson County and three children were born there. Their youngest son, Arley, was listed as born in Illinois on some census records. It is likely that the Comelys, along with Ellen's brother William H. Bear (Bair) and his family and sister Elizabeth Imel and her family all lived in Illinois for a short time in 1878-79 after leaving Indiana and before settling in Missouri. All of these related families were counted in the June 1880 Census in Bollinger County, MO. Vernon was a farmer and their neighbors were Ellen's sister Elizabeth and her husband Thomas Imel, and her brother William H. Bear and his family, all living near Marble Hill. Ellen may have died shortly after the June 1880 Census; death and burial records have not been found.

Notes for Vernon Comley:

Vernon married (2) Mary J. ..?.. possibly in 1880 after the Census was taken. He moved from Bollinger to Shannon County and in 1890 he lived in Winona, Shannon Co., MO, in the Ozark hill country. Before 1900 Vernon and wife, Mary J. moved to a farm in Jasper Township, Shannon County, and his son, Arley, age 19, lived with them. Two of Vernon and Ellen's other children, Frank and Nellie, were married and lived on nearby farms in 1900. Mary J. died before 1910 and Vernon married a third wife, Mrs. Sarah Jane (Sisco) Wood, in August 1910. She was born in 1859 and was the widow of Marion Frank Wood. Sarah Jane had at least 13 children in her previous marriage. Vernon was a patient in the Soldiers Home, St. James, MO, when he died of spinal meningitis in 1914 at age 68.

Notes for Albert (BAIR) BEAR:
Albert was working on a farm in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN, in 1870. He married Martha Jones in April 1872 in Jefferson County in a wedding ceremony performed by Rev. Robert Imel. They spelled their name Bair. Martha's sister Jane Jones was married to Albert's brother William H. Bear/Bair; their children were "double cousins." They had a large family; one infant died at birth, and several children died in childhood. They lived in Indiana and in Kentucky. In 1880 they lived in Saluda Township, Jefferson Co., IN, and had two of Albert's brothers living with them. Some of their Bear relatives lived nearby. They moved to Shelby Co., KY, in the 1880s. Three of their young children died in 1886 and were buried there. Later the family moved to Grant Co., IN, where Albert and Martha lived the rest of their lives. Albert was a farmer. In 1920 their granddaughter, Anna Shane, was living with them. In 1930, they resided in Franklin Township, Grant County, and a grandson, Charles, b. about 1919, was with them. Effie Bear was the youngest child born to Lafayette Bear and his first wife. She married Nash Sampson in 1909 and on her marriage application, she gave her parents' names as Lafayette Bear and Arabella Quithey (name has also been spelled McWithy). When Effie was a young child, her mother died and perhaps she was cared for by relatives. She was not with her widowed father in the 1900 Census although two of her brothers lived with him. Her father remarried in 1904. Nash and Effie Sampson have not been found in 1910 or later census records.

She married (2) William FISHER 15 Mar 1881 in Jefferson Co., IN.

Notes for Lavinia (Lavina) BEAR:
Her name was spelled in different ways in various records, including Lavinia, Lavena, Lewena, and Luvena. She married Samuel Steele in 1877 at the home of her parents in Carroll Co., KY; they had one son, Samuel, born in KY, about 1878. In the 1880 Census, she was a widow, age 19, living with her parents in Locust District, Carroll Co., KY, with a young son, Samuel; her last name and her son's were spelled Bare. When she married (2) William Fisher in Jefferson Co., IN, in 1881, she used her maiden name "Bear" on the marriage record. They have not been found in the 1900 Census. Her son, Samuel Steele, was age 2 years in the 1880 Census, but the 1900 Census reported that he was born in 1880.

Notes for Missouri Bell BEAR:
Missouri Bear married Albert M. McWethy in Carroll Co., KY, and their children were born in Trimble and Oldham counties in KY. In 1900 they lived on a farm in Westport Village, Oldham Co., KY, along the Ohio River. Their family story was told by their son Bill McWethy, who said "I was born on a family boat right on the Ohio River, and my old grandmother brought me into this world." Bill wrote: "My father was Albert Marion McWethy and he was born in Indiana. Albert was a tobacco farmer and he worked in the timber. My mother was Missouri Bear McWethy and she was born in Indiana. She helped my dad and was a housewife."
"In 1900 we came down the Ohio River in a bargeboat. It had ducken over the top of it. When we got to Memphis, Tennessee, dad junked that thing and we caught a train on down to Hard (sic: Howard) County, Arkansas. Dad bought out a homestead there and we stayed there a year. Dad and the man he bought the place from got into it. The man was postmaster in that town, so dad stopped going to the post office and would send one of us boys. One day my brother Walter went after the man and the old man got onto him, and they had a little fight and Walter had to leave there because the old man got a sheriff's posse after him. I left with Walter and we were afoot, we were three days and nights coming through them Seven Devil Mountains (believed to be the Quachita National Forest, located east of Howard Co., AR, and into McCurtain Co., OK). We didn't have a bite to eat or any water to drink. Our tongues had already begun to swell we were so dry. We finally came upon a little spring of water."
"In 1901 we moved to Valiant, OK, stayed there until 1904 working in timber. Then we moved to what is now Tushka, OK. We had four mules and a wagon, we stopped at a little town near Durant, OK, for dinner. There was a cotton gin there. They fired the gin with cordwood. We got a job cutting the wood for about three months. My brother Charley got a job hauling the cottonseed to Durant with the wagon and mules."
"In 1905 we moved to Wesley, OK, and in 1906 we moved over close to a sawmill. Dad had a team of mules and two yoke of oxen and Dad took a contract to put the logs on a skidway. I was the swamper. I would handle the chains to load the logs while Charley drove the oxen. We worked in Ft. Towson for awhile as flatheaders, they worked the logs there with eight wheel wagons pulled by four yoke of oxen."
"In the later part of 1906 we came to Coal County (OK). We lived in a big tent right on the bank of Owl Creek, one mile south of Centrahoma. Mr. Acker owned the land and Dad bought his tie timber. My brother Theodore lived on Margaret Brown's place eight miles west of Coalgate and farmed broom corn."
The McWethy family were in Oklahoma Territory before statehood (16 Nov 1907). Albert died in 1914 and Missouri died in 1916, both in Coal Co., OK; they are buried in Wilson Cemetery in Coalgate, OK.

183 i. Allie[4] McWETHY, born abt. 1878 in Milton, Trimble Co., KY (age 1 in 1880 Cens); died Bef. Jun 1900 in KY (probably).

Notes for Allie McWETHY:
Allie is listed as a daughter, age 1 year, in the 1880 Census, in Albert's family, living in Milton, Trimble Co., KY. Family researchers believe that this is the first-born of seven children of Missouri and Albert, and that she died in infancy or early childhood. She is not with parents in the 1900 Census. She probably died in KY and may be buried in Trimble or Oldham counties; no burial record has been found.

\+ 184 ii. Theodore McWETHY, born 10 Sep 1883 in Westport, KY (age 36 in Jan 1920 Cens); died 01 Apr 1955 in Jackson Co., OR (D/R).

186 iv. Jenny McWETHY, born 1887 in Westport, Oldham Co., KY (Family Bible record; not with parents in 1900 or 1910 Census); died Bef. Jun 1900 in KY (?).

Notes for Jenny McWETHY:
Jenny's name does not appear in any existing Census record. The only sources that mention her name in this family are the Family Bible where she is listed as a sister of Charles McWethy and family notes written in 1941 by sister Sylvia McWethy Hilburn. She likely died in infancy or childhood before 1900.

Notes for William "Bill" McWETHY:

He served as a Pvt. in the U.S. Army during World War I. Bill and Ellen were living in Coal Co., OK, in the 1920 and 1930 Census, and had no children. Bill's niece has a family history written by Uncle Bill that gives an interesting account of the family's journey from KY to AR to OK. [See Notes for Missouri Bear McWethy for stories from Bill's family history.] Bill also gave some information about his birth to Imogene Brummett who wrote his family history: "I was born in Westford (sic: Westport), KY, right on the Ohio River, October 1892. I was born on a family boat, my old grandmother brought me into this world. You see, back then Doctors were pretty scarce up and down the river."

Notes for Mary Elizabeth NEAL:
Mary E., daughter of Charles and Sarah (Bear) Neal, was born after the June 1850 Census and was listed as age 10 in the 1860 Census. Charles E. Lodge lived in Brooksburg, IN, in June 1870 (Census), single, age 26, and worked as a retail grocer. Later that year he and Mary E. Neal were married in Jefferson County. They had a son, Charles E. (Jr.), born about 1871 who was living with grandparents, Charles and Sarah Bear Neal in the 1880 Census. Mary E. Neal Lodge probably died in 1871 or 1872, soon after the birth of her son. Her husband Charles E. Lodge married (2) Cordelia King in 1873 in Jefferson Co., IN, and they had a daughter, Mattie Neal. Cordelia died and Charles, Sr. married a third wife. Charles E. Lodge, Jr., moved to Memphis, TN, and married before 1900; he lived in Memphis during his adult life.

40. Mandana Frances "Dana"[3] NEAL (Sarah[2] BEAR, Christian[1], John[A]) was born Mar 1863 in IN (age 17 in 1880 Cens), and died 05 Aug 1924 in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN (D/C); bur. Crown Hill Cemetery. She married William M. JOHNSON 09 Jun 1887 in Marion Co., IN (M/R). He was born Jan 1860 in IN (age 40 in June 1900 Cens), and died in unknown place (possibly after 5 Aug 1924).

Notes for Mandana Frances "Dana" NEAL:
Mandana (aka Dana) Neal was the youngest daughter of Charles and Sarah Bear Neal. Her birth date is questionable because census and other records vary widely regarding her age. Her Death Certificate gave her d.o.b. 23 March 1856 but the 1900 Census has her birth - March 1863. In the 1870 Census "Dana" was said to be age 11 years (if accurate, she was born before 1860). She married William Johnson in 1887 and they lived in the city of Indianapolis, Center Township. In 1900, she ran a "boarding house" at 1111 E. 11th Street. Family members remember that one of the boarders was a midget who portrayed "Tom Thumb" in the circus. Dana Johnson was a listed as a "widow" in the 1910 Census, with son Orville and sister Nannie in her household. One family member was told that William left his wife and son between 1900 - 1910 and "disappeared"; no divorce (or death) record has been found. In 1920 Dana was living with her son Charles O. Johnson on N. Carrollton in Indianapolis. Dana died of cancer in 1924; her Death Certificate gave her marital status as "married" and spouse's name William M. Johnson. Her son Charles O. Johnson purchased a cemetery plot in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis, on 6 August 1924 and Dana, buried in Grave #1, was the first interment in the family grave lot.

Notes for Henry Franklin (Frank) BEAR:
Henry Franklin (aka Frank) married Eliza Splain (name also spelled Splean and Spleen) in October 1872 and they had eleven children. Henry (F.) Bear owned 71 acres in Bee Camp, on the east side of the Milton-Madison township line road (east) in 1887-88; and the county directory listed Henry F. and Eliza Bear as owners of 89 acres in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., IN, post office - Brooksburg in 1890-91. There were several Henry Bears and there has been some confusion in the records. This Henry was more commonly known as "Frank." On his daughter Lydia's marriage application in 1917, her father's name was Frank Bear, a farmer, born in Jefferson County. H. Franklin Bear served on the Official Board of the Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church 1903-1908. After Frank died in 1919, his widow Eliza lived with her daughter Lydia (Mrs. Thomas Bishop), and in 1930 she was living in the household of son Lowry H. Bear. 216 vi. Mary J. BEAR, born 19 Apr 1881 in Jefferson Co., IN; died 08 Nov 1904 in IN, age 23 y 7 m; bur. Pleasant Ridge Cemetery, Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN.

Notes for Mary J. BEAR:
Mary J. Bear was a member of the Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church in Jefferson Co., IN, along with her parents and many of her Bear relatives. The Church History, compiled in 1960 by Bertha Lyons Bear, lists Mary Bear as a member who joined the church in 1894. She died in 1904, unmarried, age 23 and is buried in the church cemetery. The cemetery record gives her dates of birth and death, and names her parents.

217 vii. Louis "Lou" BEAR, born 03 Jan 1883 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 17 in 1900 Cens); died 1935 in prob Jefferson Co., IN; bur. Pleasant Ridge Methodist Cemetery, Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN. He married Bertha B. LYONS 14 Oct 1911 in Jefferson Co., IN by William H. Ake, minister (M/R Book 3, p. 409); born 07 Mar 1889 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 30 in Jan 1920 Cens); died Dec 1965 in IN (SSDI - res. Hanover, Jefferson Co., IN); bur. Pleasant Ridge Cemetery.

Notes for Louis "Lou" BEAR:
Louis (aka "Lou") Bear was a farmer in the Pleasant Ridge area of Jefferson Co., IN. There is a question about his year of birth. The 1900 Census and his tombstone have 1883 as his birth year, yet his 1911 marriage application has d.o.b. January 3, 1885. His World War I Draft card, signed in 1918, listed his d.o.b. Jan. 3, 1881. He married Bertha B. Lyons. She wrote a history of the Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church a few years before her death. He died in 1935 and she died in 1965. They are buried in the Pleasant Ridge Church Cemetery.

She died in 1926 at age 38 and is buried in Pleasant Ridge Cemetery with her parents. The Pleasant Ridge Cemetery tombstone reading (transcribed) has her birth year 1882 but that is probably an error as it differs from all Census records 1900, 1910, 1920 which indicate b. 1888.

Martin married (2) Mary Frances (aka "Fannie") Meek, in 1881; they had five daughters and two sons. They lived on a farm in Milton Township, Jefferson County, near Martin's father, Madison Bear, in the 1900 Census and Martin's birth date was given as February 1853. This Madison Bear, named for his paternal grandfather, served in the U.S. Army in the 1890s, died while in Service but not in battle, according to information from cousin, W. Shirley Rogers. Madison was said to have been born about 1878; however, he was not with his father Martin in the 1880 Census. Was he being cared for by his Allfrey relatives? Further research is needed.

47. Lowry Hartford[3] BEAR, M.D. (Madison[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born 02 Jul 1868 in Brooksburg, Jefferson Co., IN (age 51 in Jan 1920), and died 30 Nov 1959 in Vevay, Switzerland Co., IN, age 91; bur. Vevay Cemetery. He married Zella ("Zell") BARNETT 13 Nov 1901, daughter of Martin BARNETT and Alice SHAW. She was born 1874 in IN "from Vevay" (age 35 in Apr 1910 Census; 45 in 1920), and died 09 Nov 1937 in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN.

Notes for Lowry Hartford BEAR, M.D.:
Dr. Lowry Hartford Bear's name appeared numerous times in the Brooksburg (IN) Sun in 1895-1897. One item reported: "Dr. L. H. Bear of Vevay spent Christmas 1897 with home folks." He was single in the 1900 census living alone in Vevay, IN. He married Zella Barnett, whom he called "Zell," in 1901. Before marriage, Zella had attended DePauw University in Greencastle, IN, and in 1894 she was a student in art school in Cincinnati. Their daughter Mary was born in 1902. Lowry was an M.D. in general practice and was well known in Vevay and Switzerland County. He delivered hundreds of newborns and in the early years, visited patients on horseback and by horse and buggy. For 45 years his office was in the Thiebaud property on Main St. in Vevay, which is now on the Indiana Registry of Historic Places. In February 1941 he moved into rooms in the Wiseman Building on Main Street. For many years he served as Switzerland County Health Officer. In May 1915 Dr. L. H. Bear received this complimentary message from the Indiana State Health Commissioner, as noted in the Vevay newspaper: "I do not know of any County Health Commissioner who has so well fulfilled the functions of his office as yourself." When the widespread flu epidemic threatened Switzerland County in the fall of 1918, Dr. L. H. Bear, Health Officer, acting on orders from the IN State Board of Health, "ordered all churches, schools, and places of amusement closed and all public meetings banned because of the epidemic of Spanish influenza." In May 1946 the local newspaper reported that Dr. L. H. Bear, County Health Officer, was urging all citizens to obtain vaccinations against smallpox "to prevent any possible epidemic that may result from the pestilence of this disease now apparent on the West coast."

Dr. and Mrs. Bear lived at 122 Market Street, in Vevay, a short walk from his medical office, Eliza R. Ralston was bookkeeper for Dr. Bear for 23 years [info from her Obit., 17 Mar 2002, in the Madison Courier]. In 1915 when the Vevay Public Library was opened for the first time, Dr. L. H. Bear was the first person in the county to borrow a book. In February 1937 the Vevay Reveille noted: "Dr. L. H. Bear is suffering from an injury to his eye received Monday night when he ran into a wire hook in the basement of his home."

Dr. Bear was interested in family history and in 1932 he wrote a lengthy, typewritten letter to his cousin Gladys Bear Sourbeer (b. 1899), in which he told about the Bear family.

In 1997 journalist Don Stepleton wrote an interesting column called "Grin and Bear It" for the Vevay (IN) Reveille relating stories about Dr. L. H. Bear and his daughter Mary. Dr. Bear died on Thanksgiving night at his Vevay home in November 1959 at age 91. He was a widower for 22 years; his wife Zella died in Nov 1937.

Notes for James Perry PHILLIPS:
James Perry (known as Perry) Phillips, was the oldest of two sons born to Mary (Bear) and Gabriel Phillips, Sr. Perry was born in 1851 and his brother, Gabriel, was born in 1853. They were young when their mother married her second husband, Henry Phillips, who was also their uncle. Perry was married twice. He married (1) Emily Brown. The only record found for her birth year 1848 is the date on her tombstone and it may not be correct; she was listed as age 23 in the June 1880 Census. In her early years, she was a member of the Milton Baptist Church. In 1880 he and his wife Emily were living on a farm in Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., IN, with their two young daughters, Mollie and Rena. They lived in several locations in the county, including a farm near Brooksburg, and then to the "Forks of the Creek" (probably the Indian-Kentuck) as was reported in the Brooksburg newspaper. Emily died in March 1890 in Madison, IN, of heart disease. After Emily died, Perry married (2) Lotta (aka Lottie) Jenkins, who was almost 20 years younger than he was. They had four children. In 1900 Perry and wife Lottie lived in West Madison where Perry was a laborer in a "shipyard" along the Ohio River. He was a member of the Manville Christian Church. He died at home in Madison, IN, in 1910 of malaria and was buried in Springdale Cemetery in that city. His obituary called him a "good citizen and devoted husband and father." His widow Lottie moved to Indianapolis with her children and married (2) John O. Glover about 1911-1912. Lottie and her second husband are buried in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Notes for Nellie PHILLIPS:
Nellie was the first of four children born to J. Perry Phillips and his second wife. Nellie was probably born in or near Brooksburg, in Milton Township, Jefferson Co., Indiana. Her parents lived there in the 1890s. She moved to Indianapolis and married Ollie J. Nimmons; they had no children. They lived in Center Township, Marion Co., IN. Nellie was a stenographer. Ollie was an auto machinist and later a truck driver. When Ollie registered for the 1942 WW II draft, he did not mention a wife and gave his sister Emma as a contact person. It is presumed that Nellie died before 1942, probably in Indianapolis (no death record found).

Springdale Cemetery, Madison, IN (D/C). He married Luella MORGAN 10 Dec 1876 in Manville, Milton Twp., Jefferson Co., IN, at Manville Christian Church (M/R), daughter of Daniel MORGAN and Temperance PORTER. She was born 08 Feb 1862 in Jefferson Co., IN, and died 11 Jan 1944 in Madison, Jefferson Co., IN, age 81 y 11 m 3 d; bur. Springdale Cemetery (D/C).

Notes for Gabriel PHILLIPS:
Gabriel (aka "Gabe") was the second and youngest son of Mary (Bear) Phillips and her first husband, Gabriel (Sr.). Gabe was born in September 1853 on a farm in Jefferson Co., IN, on Dry Fork Road in Shelby Township, Jefferson Co., IN. His paternal grandparents Presley and Sarah (Hall) Phillips were early settlers in Shelby Township. He was an active member of the Milton Baptist Church; then in 1875 he was baptized in the Indian Kentuck Creek and joined the Manville Christian Church where his wife-to-be was a member. He married Luella Morgan on Sunday, 10 December 1876 at Manville Church, with the congregation as witnesses; Rev. J. W. Lanham, pastor, performed the ceremony. They lived all of their married life in Jefferson County and had nine children between December 1878 and September 1903; all lived to adulthood.
Gabe moved from Shelby Township to Milton Township after marriage, then to a small farm in Madison Township before the birth of their youngest, Lola, in Sept 1903. They moved into the city of Madison in 1912 on East Third Street [land transactions are in Sources below]. Their home was a Baltimore-style row house, narrow in width and three-stories high, with rooms in the lower (basement) level. Their younger children went to Eggleston School in the same block. In January 1920 they sold their home and bought another one, on West Street. This house was sold to their son Edward Phillips after Gabriel died in May 1923. In Madison they were active members of the First Christian Church on W. Main Street and took care of the building. Gabe was janitor of the church with the help of his wife Luella. Their son Ed served as the Church Treasurer for many years. Gabe was a mild mannered, gentle man who was tall and thin, wore a long beard and was bald (five of his six sons inherited the baldness). Gabe was a devout Christian, devoted to church and family. He died at age 69 in Madison, IN, of a heart attack which at the time was diagnosed as "acute indigestion." Luella purchased a cemetery plot of 8 graves in Springdale Cemetery for $35 and Gabe was laid to rest there.

Notes for Luella MORGAN:

Luella Morgan Phillips was born in 1862 in her maternal grandparents' home on Turkey Branch. She probably attended Grammer school at Union School in Milton Township, a one-room schoolhouse built in 1861. She completed the 8th grade, then taught for a year before she was married. There is some question about exactly where Luella lived in her childhood years between about 1863 and 1876 although the Morgans always lived on farms in Jefferson Co., IN. Her parents have not been found in the Census of 1870. She married Gabe Phillips in December 1876 at age 14. In 1880 Luella and Gabe and their first child, Celia, lived on Turkey Branch next to Luella's parents and near her grandparents, Moses and Lydia Porter. In 1895 some of the Phillips children attended the Milton School in Milton Township, Jefferson County. They may have lived on Brushy Fork in the 1890s but no land record has been found. Perhaps they were renting a farm there, before buying the small farm in Madison Township, at the top of Eagle Hollow Hill.

As a widow, Luella lived with Lola, her youngest daughter, at 307 E. Fourth Street in an old two-story, two-bedroom house, purchased by her son Ed Phillips. Ed sold it to Lola and her husband, Dale Wilson in 1925. Luella helped care for Lola and Dale's two daughters, Jean and June, during the 1930s and did cooking and housework. She shared an upstairs bedroom with her granddaughters throughout their childhood years. In 1940 the Wilsons built a new 3-bedroom home at 906 East Second Street, and when they moved in, Luella finally had a bedroom of her own and no more steps to climb. She celebrated her 80th birthday in February 1942 with a party at First Christian Church, Madison, where she was a faithful member. She died at home during the night of January 11, 1944 of a heart attack. She is buried in Springdale Cemetery beside her husband, Gabe. Theirs are the only two occupied grave spaces in the family plot.

Notes for Drury Edward PHILLIPS:
Drury Edward (aka "Ed") was born and lived all of his life in Jefferson Co., IN. As a young man, Ed moved from his farm home to work in Madison and boarded at the Cottage Hotel. His brother Leonard roomed with him for awhile. In 1912 his parents moved into town (Madison) and Ed lived with them at 412 E. Third Street, and later at 603 West Street. He worked for Cofield & Barber Wholesale Grocers as clerk and then as salesman until his retirement. When he was required to register in the World War draft, he claimed exemption based on having his parents as dependents. Ed was the main "bread winner" for his family and did not have to serve in the War.

In May 1923 soon after his father died, Ed bought the family home at 603 West Street from his mother, and he also bought a house at 307 E. 4th Street as a home for his mother, Luella Phillips, and his youngest sister, Lola. Later, he sold the 4th Street house to Lola and her husband, William D. "Dale" Wilson. Ed was always a devoted son and he visited his mother every day on his way home from work. His nieces, Jean and June, considered him a "special" uncle because when he came to see his mother, he brought chewing gum for the girls. They called him the "poopum (chewing gum) man."

When he was age 36, in 1923, Ed gave up "bachelorhood" and married (1) Florence Server, daughter of John Henry and Martha Ann (Spicer) Server. They had no children. They lived first on West Street in Madison for many years, then moved to a newly-built stone home in North Madison, at the corner of Wells Drive and State Road 7.

Ed was a man of strong beliefs and convictions, a devout church layman in the First Christian Church in Madison, where he served for many years as Treasurer. His first wife was a staunch Baptist and a Sunday School teacher at the First Baptist Church around the corner from the Christian Church. Every Sunday Ed and Florence went separately to the two churches and this arrangement seemed to work well for them through the years.

Ed loved music and had a good singing voice. After he retired, he bought an electric organ for his home, learned to play well, and enjoyed it.

After Florence died of cancer in October 1957, Ed married Cullie (Brooks) Spicer, daughter of Samuel & Indiola (Coleman) Brooks. Cullie's first husband was William Spicer. With this marriage, Ed became stepfather to James, John, and Norma Spicer, who were adults when Ed and Cullie married in August 1958. Ed and Cullie enjoyed traveling. He died of cancer in June 1965 at age 78. Cullie lived another 26 years (until 1992), staying in their Wells Drive home. Cullie was in poor health for several years and required round-the-clock care at home. She moved to Clifty Convalescent Center shortly before her death in April 1992. Cullie, educated at Hanover College, was a retired elementary school teacher and a member of the First Christian Church in Madison, IN. Ed is buried in Springdale Cemetery, Madison, IN, beside his wife Florence.

--Personal knowledge of niece, Lola Phillips Wilson (1903-1995), who remembered Solomon and his children.

Children of Solomon PHILLIPS and Mary RYKER are:

267 i. Sylvia[4] PHILLIPS, born abt. 1888 in Jefferson Co., IN; died 28 Jan 1891 in Jefferson Co., IN; died young of diptheria (D/R, Jefferson County Health Dept.).

\+ 268 ii. Henry M. PHILLIPS, born 14 Mar 1890 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 20 in Apr 1910 Cens); died Bef. Oct 1933 in IN (?).

269 iii. Mary Elizabeth PHILLIPS, born 09 Mar 1892 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 18 in Apr 1910 Cens); died 06 Oct 1933 in Tucson, AZ, age 41 yr 6 mos.

Notes for Mary Elizabeth PHILLIPS:
Mary Elizabeth Phillips was a member of the First Baptist Church in Madison, IN, baptized on 3 March 1911. As a young woman she dedicated her life to Christian service. She went to Franklin College and then graduated from the Baptist Missionary Training School in Chicago. Commissioned a missionary in 1918 by the Northern Baptist Board of International Ministries, she was sponsored by the Philathea Women's Class at Madison's First Baptist Church to go as a missionary to Burma. Later the church named a Missionary Circle the "Mary Phillips Chapter" in her memory. Her photo is in the church archives (as noted below).
Mary left the U.S. in September 1918, sailing from San Francisco, CA, to Burma on the ship "Nanking." While serving in Burma, she contracted a disease that eventually took her life. After she returned to the United States, she lived in Arizona and died there at the age of 41 (her obituary was in error when it gave her age as 43). She never married. She is buried in Tucson, AZ. Her only surviving sibling was brother Jesse Phillips, who lived near New York City on Long Island. There is a story that has been passed along in the family, that once while Mary was visiting in New York City, she went to worship at the famous Riverside Church. There she was "excluded" from sitting in a certain pew because it was claimed by some rich parishioner. Her death notice was in the Madison Courier 7 Oct 1933, p. 6, with the headline: "Miss Mary Phillips Dead." It stated that "word was received from Tucson, Ariz., by Mrs. George Augustin reporting the death of Miss Mary Phillips, 43, in that city. Miss Phillips was a native of this county, a former missionary in Burma, had resided in this city with Mr. and Mrs. Augustin for some time and is survived by a brother, Jesse, in New York."

Milroy, IN); bur. in NY.

Notes for Jesse Herbert PHILLIPS:
Jesse H.(aka Jess) Phillips was born in Jefferson Co., IN, to Solomon and Janie Ryker Phillips. Jesse's mother died when he was young and his father remarried. Jesse enlisted in the U.S. Marines in World War I and was a Sgt. before the War ended. Jess married Florence Hanley in 1919. They lived in Jamaica, Long Island, NY, and had no children. They kept in touch with his relatives in Jefferson County, and visited there through the years. He died in January 1960 at age 65.

Florence is remembered as a beautiful, gracious lady. After Jess died, she moved from New York City to the small Indiana town of Milroy in Rush Co., IN, to be near her close friends, Willard and Sudie White. Her home was on Church Street. Florence was a widow for almost 21 years. She stayed in Milroy until her death in December 1981, at age 82. Funeral arrangements were made by Murphy & Burns (now Burns) Funeral Home and her remains were sent to New York for burial. No one knows the name of the cemetery in New York but it is thought that she was buried beside her husband Jess.

The youngest of five children of Solomon Phillips and his first wife, Bessie was just over a year old when her mother, Janie Ryker Phillips, died. Her father kept the family together, and then remarried when Bessie was age 6 years. No records have been found of Bessie after the Census of 1910.

Was Bessie called "Sylvia" after her older sister Sylvia who had died in childhood, or was this simply an error by the census enumerator?

Springdale Cemetery.

Notes for Ida B. PHILLIPS:
Ida was a daughter of Henry and Mary (Bear) Phillips, reared on the Phillips farm on Dry Fork in Shelby Township. She and two of her sisters married brothers, sons of Nathaniel Sr. and Perilda Brown. Ida married Charles S. Brown in Jefferson County in 1882. They had nine children born before June 1900, but sadly, only four were still alive when the Census was taken; they lived on a farm in Shelby Township. Ida died between 1900 and Sept 1903 when Charles remarried. In 1910 Charles, 49, and his second wife, Lula B., 26, had three young daughters, and two of his older children, Henry, 20, and Winnie, 18, were still single and at home. Charles and Lula had six children in the 1920 Census, still living in Shelby Township. In 1930, Charles, age 69, a widower, lived with his daughter Lottie DeBurger and her family in Madison, IN. Charles died in 1945 and is buried in Springdale Cemetery, Madison. Ida's burial place has not been located; perhaps she was buried with her parents on the Phillips farm in Shelby Township in the family cemetery.

60. Perry Ellsworth[3] BEAR, Judge (Joseph Ellsworth[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born 22 Sep 1860 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 59 in 1920 Cens), and died 01 May 1930 in North Madison, Jefferson Co., IN; bur. Springdale Cemetery. He married Jennie W. CHAMPNEY 03 Mar 1883 in Madison, IN, at First Presbyterian Church (M/R), daughter of Calvin CHAMPNEY and Sarah ANDERSON. She was born 24 Dec 1862 in NY (age 18 in 1880 Cens), and died 07 Oct 1931 in Jefferson Co., IN.

Notes for Perry Ellsworth BEAR, Judge:
Perry E. Bear married Jennie Champney and they had eight children. He was a lawyer and judge, a member of Trinity Methodist Church, Madison, IN, the Republican party, and the I.O.O.F Lodge. His Biography, found in the 1889 Jefferson County History, p. 210, tells of his life:
"Perry E. Bear is a native of Jefferson county, Ind., and was born September 22, 1860. His parents were Joseph Bear, a farmer, who was born in Jefferson county, in 1834, and Margaret Whitmore who was born in Kentucky. His paternal grandfather, Christian Bear, was a native of Pennsylvania, and settled in Jefferson county, Ind., before the State was admitted to the Union. He was of German origin, his father being a native of Germany." [Author's note: Christian was born in KY, not in PA; perhaps Christian's grandfather was from Germany, but his father, John, was probably born in PA].

"Perry E. Bear was educated in the schools of the county, having graduated from the High School. He read law with Edward Leland, and was admitted to the practice of law in 1881. He was with Judge E. R. Wilson, of Madison, for two years. In 1883 was elected City Attorney of Madison; was re-elected in 1885. In 1886 was appointed deputy prosecutor of Jefferson county. He became the nominee of his (Republican) party for prosecuting attorney for the Fifth Judicial Circuit in the fall of 1888, and was elected. In 1883 was married to Miss Champney. He is a member of the I. O. O. F."
Later in the 19th Century, a photo and lengthy article of his judicial career was published in the Madison Democrat. It described him as "ever ready to be lenient with the erring as far as the law will permit, and at all time preferring to administer a kind and helping word of advice to one that has just started on the downward road to criminality, rather than a blighting jail sentence."
Judge Bear died in 1930 and his wife died the next year. They are buried in Springdale Cemetery, Madison, IN.

The Bear Company History is found on the Internet: "Bear Brothers, Inc. traces its origin back to 1932 with the formation of Bear Lumber Company in Montgomery, Alabama. In 1946, the six sons of T. L. Bear, Sr. founded Bear Brothers, Inc. The two companies operated as separate entities until 1964 when Bear Brothers, Inc. became a wholly owned subsidiary of Bear Lumber Company. In 1986, first cousins Joe F. Bear and Clyde S. Bear became sole owners of Bear Lumber Company and its subsidiaries. Joe Bear has been active in the construction business for over forty years and is also the president of Bear Lumber Company. Clyde Bear has nearly thirty-five years experience in construction. For fifty-nine years, Bear Brothers, Inc. has been involved in commercial, industrial, institutional, and various other classes of general building construction. The company has successfully kept Montgomery and parts of South Alabama as its primary markets for construction work." Minnie Compton Bear died in 1936 at age 50; Theodore L., Sr. lived to age 81.

His wife, Rhoda Azalea Bair, was in the State Hospital near Farmington, MO, for 38 years before her death on 30 Jan 1943. Her Death Certificate has the cause of death as general arteriosclerosis, with other condition "paranoid schizophrenia" (this explains why Ed was sometimes referred to as a "widower"). She was born 01 Jul 1880 in Dent Co., MO (age 19 in 1900 Cens), and died 18 Nov 1965 in MO; bur. New Eminence Cemetery with husband.

Notes for Frank Cordell COMELY:
Frank was a farmer in the Missouri Ozarks, living near Round Spring, MO, for 60 years. His wife "Ettie" is mentioned in the Shannon Co., MO, History and on the 1900 Census as Ettie Angel. They had at least nine children; one son died in infancy. Family trees online have her name as Etta Cordelia Randolph. In 1900, Frank and "Ettie Angel" lived in Jasper Township near Frank's father, Vernon R., a veteran of the Union Army in the Civil War. Their infant son O. E. Comely, who died in 1901 at age 8 months, is buried in Grassy Creek Cemetery, between Round Spring and Eminence, MO. When Frank died in 1953, his Death Certificate spelled his surname "Comely." His birth year differs from 1871-1877 in various records; however, 1872 is probably correct.

Williams Cemetery, Winona, Shannon Co., MO. He married Esther Mae BURNETT abt. 1904 in MO (Shannon Co.?), he was 24, she was 18, daughter of Ira BURNETT. She was born 10 Sep 1885 in Dent Co., MO, and died 07 Oct 1953 in hospital in Howell Co., MO, age 68; bur. Williams Cemetery with husband.

Notes for Arla (Arley) COMELY:
Arley Comely moved to Bollinger Co., MO, as an infant. His father's name is spelled "Comley" in most records; however, sources for Arley and his siblings and their descendants all spell the name "Comely." The 1880 Census reported his birth place as Indiana, while all other census records have him born in Illinois. In 1900 he was single, living with father and stepmother, Vernon and Mary J. Comley, working as a farm laborer in Shannon County, MO. There is some confusion about his year of birth. Some records, including his death records, give his birth date as 25 Dec 1881; however, this cannot be correct because he was counted as an infant with his parents in the June 1880 Census. He married Esther M. Burnett and they had five children, all born in Missouri. Two children died as infants and the three who lived to adulthood, Amy, Lorene, and Ray, never married.

He and his sons worked as farm laborers. Some online Family Trees list two more wives for Henry, and a marriage record shows his marriage to a second wife, Lela Riley, in 1911 in Jefferson Co., IN; however, the census records in 1910, 1920 and 1930 give his marital status as "wd" with no wife in his household. 208. Charles Edward[4] LODGE, Jr. (Mary Elizabeth[3] NEAL, Sarah[2] BEAR, Christian[1], John[A]) was born Jun 1871 in IN (age 8 in 1880; 28 in 1900 Cens), and died 28 Oct 1954 in Shelby Co.. TN, age 83 (D/R). He married Willie Belle SULLIVAN abt. 1899 in TN (?), daughter of James SULLIVAN and Sallie HARRETT. She was born Sep 1878 in MS, and died 16 Apr 1951 in Memphis, Shelby Co., TN, age 72 (D/R); bur. Forest Hill Cemetery.

Notes for Charles Edward LODGE, Jr.:
Charles E. Lodge (aka "Ned") was living with Sarah and Charles Neal in Madison, Jefferson Co., IN, in the 1880 Census when he was 8 years old. His mother had died and his father was remarried, living in KY, and had a young daughter by his second wife (born before 1880). As a young man, Charles E., Jr. moved to Memphis, TN (before June 1900) and married Willie Belle Sullivan, known as Belle. Charles, 28, and his wife Willie B.,21, were portrait dealers in 1900. In the 1910 Census they had been married 10 years and had two daughters, Sarah R., and Helen J., ages 9 and 6, both born in Tennessee. Charles was an inspector for a Steam Railroad and his wife was "keeper" of a large boarding house with twenty men rooming there. In 1920 they lived at 223 Court Ave., Memphis. Charles, age 49, was working as a "Printer" and Willa, age 42, had no occupation; they were renting rooms to five male "lodgers". Their daughters were ages 19 and 16, and in school. In 1930, Charles E. Lodge, 59, was renting a home and had 15 working men as "roomers" in the household, and also two women - one was a housekeeper and the other a bookkeeper. Willie B. Lodge, wife [indexed on Ancestry.com as "Willie B. Poage"] is listed out of order in the household, but the information seems accurate. The two daughters were not living at home in 1930. The girls may have been married by then; however, marriage records have not been found for them. Charles died in Memphis in 1954 at age 83. Willie B. died of cancer in 1951 at age 72; her D/C gives her place of burial as Forest Hill Cemetery. They were living in Raleigh, TN, when she died.

He was born abt. 1876 in MN (age 54 in 1930 Cens).

Notes for Nettie Myrtle BEAR:
Nettie M. was a member of the Madison Presbyterian Church along with her parents and sister Edna Opal Bear. Records indicate that Nettie was married three times before 1930. She married (1) Raymond Earl Lockard in Kentucky (also spelled Lochard in some records); they had two children. She married (2) Edward H. Kohl; it was a short marriage. She married (3) Sam Carlton and they had one daughter, Rosamund, born in 1924. In the Census of 1930 her marital status was "divorced;" she and her three children lived with her mother, Emma P. Bear. Her ex-husband Sam Carlton was an unemployed lodger, living in San Diego in 1930, with marital status listed as single.
When Nettie died, her name was Lockard on her death records. Perhaps she and Earl remarried and Earl was her first and also her last husband. This is suggested in a letter written in 1932 by Dr. L. H. Bear, Vevay, IN, who stated: "Nettie has gone back to California and she and Earl have separated again."

Notes for William Roscoe PHILLIPS:
William Roscoe (aka "Ross") was born in Jefferson Co., IN, and was listed in the 1909 Madison City Directory as a "student" living with his parents. He was married there in February 1913 to Elizabeth Mitchell. Because he was age 19 (and under 21), his mother, "Mrs. Lottie Glover" signed permission for W. Roscoe "to wed the girl whom he may choose." He chose to marry Elizabeth who had just turned 20. She was living on a farm near Blocher, IN, keeping house for her father, Arthur Mitchell. Her mother, Eliza (Ward) Mitchell was deceased before 1913. Elizabeth may have died soon after marriage, between 1913 and 1917; however, no death record has been found. Ross was a stenographer in Madison, then moved to Indianapolis where he lived with his sister and brother-in-law, Nellie and Ollie Nimmons; he was listed at their address in the 1915 and 1916 City Directories. His occupation was "clerk." Family members recalled that Ross was "close" with his Phillips first cousins (sons of Gabriel and Luella Phillips) who were also living and working in the city of Indianapolis. Ross was single when he signed his WW I draft card on June 5, 1917 and was married 9 days later, on June 14 to (2) Hazel Lewis in Marion County. They lived with Hazel's parents in Jan 1920 and had an infant daughter, Phyllis. In 1930 they lived in Columbus, IN, and had 3 children. They moved back to Indianapolis before 1942. Ross was a salesman for a the Oliver Farm Equipment Company. No records have been found on this family after 1942.

Notes for Charles Alvin PHILLIPS:
Charles Alvin was probably born in August of 1900. His 1918 World War I draft card has his birth date 20 Aug 1899; however, he is not listed with his mother in June 1900 when the Census was taken. His father died in 1910 and his mother remarried and the family moved to Indianapolis. At age 19, he lived with his mother Lottie Glover and sister Nellie Nimmons. He married Frances Wade in 1921 and they had two daughters, Mary Ann, who married a Risk, and Betty, who married a Perry. Betty Perry's husband reportedly died in World War II. Mary Ann Risk said that her father Charles separated from his wife and daughters, and she knew nothing more about him. He may have moved to CA. California death records have Charles Alvin Phillips born 20 Aug 1901, died in San Diego County in 1979. More research is needed.

Springdale Cemetery, Madison, IN. She married Joseph Aaron SHERMAN 23 Dec 1896 in Jefferson Co., IN, son of Solomon SHERMAN and Isabelle HANKINS. He was born 04 Jun 1875 in Jefferson Co., IN, and died 01 May 1939 in Madison, Jefferson, IN, age 63; bur. Springdale Cemetery.

Notes for Cecelia PHILLIPS:
Cecelia (aka "Celie"), the first-born of nine children of Gabe and Luella Phillips, was born on a farm at Christmas time in 1878. She married Joe Sherman on her 18th birthday, 23 Dec 1896. They were distant cousins. Joe's sister Myrtle married Celie's brother Harvey; their children were "double cousins." In the early years, the couple lived on farms in Jefferson County, not far from their parents; Joe was a farmer and a carpenter. For a short time before 1900 they lived in Whiteland in Johnson County, IN and their daughter Opal was born there. They had two children, Opal and Raymond. Later, Celie and Joe and their children lived in Madison where Joe was in the grocery business. Aunt Celie is remembered by her niece Jean Wilson Perney as a seamstress who earned a living making clothing for others. She made the the dresses that Jean and her sister June wore as children. Later cut into quilt blocks, remnants of those cotton dresses remain today in quilts made by Celie's mother, Luella Morgan Phillips. Celie and Joe were active members of the First Baptist Church of Madison; he served on the Advisory Board and she was a Sunday School leader for many years. After Joe died of a heart attack in 1939 at age 64, Celie lived with her daughter Opal at 115 West Third St. until after 1958. She was a patient in Madison State Hospital when she died at age 84, in January 1963; she is buried beside her husband and daughter in Springdale Cemetery, Madison.

Notes for Opal Edna SHERMAN:
Opal Edna, born in Whiteland, Johnson Co., IN, moved to Jefferson County at an early age and lived there the rest of her life. She was graduate of Madison High School and Hanover College. She taught school for 39 years, first at North Madison for seven years and then at Madison High School where she taught speech, journalism, and mathematics. "Miss Opal" was a favorite teacher at M.H.S. where cousins Jean and June Wilson attended. She was the high school's drama coach for 32 years and directed the school plays. She demanded excellence of the players, and on dress rehearsal day, Miss Opal's dark brown eyes would flash as she gave final instructions and "shaped up" the budding young actors and actresses. Then on the big night of the performance, she would smilingly receive her gift of long-stemmed roses from the cast. Her influence on thousands of students through the years cannot be measured. The auditorium of the new Madison High School "on the hilltop" was named the Opal E. Sherman Memorial Auditorium in her memory. Opal never married although she was engaged to marry at one time in her youth. She and her parents shared a home at 115 W. Third Street, and after her father died in 1939, she and her mother continued to live there. She was an active member of First Baptist Church and taught in the primary department of the Sunday School for 42 years. She died in May 1958 in Madison, IN, age 59. She had been diagnosed with cancer, but a heart attack was the immediate cause of death. Opal is buried in Springdale Cemetery, Madison.

Ryker's Ridge Cemetery, Jefferson Co., IN. He married Myrtle E. SHERMAN 03 Feb 1901 in Jefferson Co., IN, daughter of Solomon SHERMAN and Isabelle HANKINS. She was born 23 Mar 1880 in Jefferson Co., IN (age 20 in 1900 Cens), and died 30 May 1955 in Madison, IN, age 75; bur. Ryker's Ridge with husband.

Notes for Harvey Wiley PHILLIPS:
Harvey W. married Myrtle Sherman in 1901. Her brother Joe Sherman was married to Harvey's sister, Cecelia, and the children were "double cousins." Harvey and Myrtle had six children; three sons, including one set of twins, died as infants. The three who lived to adulthood were Sylvia May (known as May), born in 1901, Mildred, born in 1919, and Doyle, born in 1920. Harvey was a farmer; his farm was located west of Madison in the Ohio River valley at the foot of the Hanover hill. He registered in the World War I draft in 1918, but did not have to serve in the War. When Harvey became ill with tuberculosis, he and his family moved to the Rio Grande Valley, Cameron Co., Texas, hoping that the climate would help him. His condition became worse and in 1927 his family in Indiana sent the money so that Harvey, Myrtle and the two younger children could return to Madison by train. His daughter, May, had married Henry Bergman and she and her family stayed in southern Texas. Harvey was a devout member in the First Christian Church, Madison, and served as an Elder for several years. He was musical and had a good singing voice. His favorite hymn was "Where the Gates Swing Outward Never." The words of that hymn are indicative of Harvey's strong faith: "Just a few more days to sing His praise, and to tell the old, old story. When the twilight falls and my Saviour calls, I will go to Him in glory. I'll exchange my cross for a starry crown, where the gates swing outward never; at His feet I'll lay every burden down, and with Jesus reign forever." Harvey died in September 1927 at his mother's home in Madison, surrounded by his loved ones; he was age 46. After Harvey died, Myrtle went to work as a "live-in" attendant at the Madison State Hospital and her two younger children lived with relatives. Later, Myrtle rented an apartment on West Third Street in Madison and lived there with her children, Mildred and Doyle. Myrtle died of cancer at the home of her daughter, Mildred, in Madison in 1955 after a long illness. She is buried beside her husband Harvey in Ryker's Ridge Cemetery, Jefferson Co., IN.

Ryker's Ridge Baptist Church Cemetery, Jefferson Co., IN. She married Adolph LOCKRIDGE 14 Sep 1901 in Manville, Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), son of Henry LOCKRIDGE and Letitia SHERMAN. He was born 20 Mar 1878 in Jefferson Co., IN, and died 07 Jul 1954 in Jefferson Co., IN.

Notes for Pearl PHILLIPS:
Pearl married Adolph Lockridge in 1901 at the Manville Christian Church in a ceremony performed by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Lanham. Pearl and Adolph had two daughters and two sons; one daughter died in childhood and the other as a young woman. Only the two sons lived to adulthood. Pearl was a hard-working farm wife and mother and an excellent cook. Her home-cooked, farm dinners were remembered by dozens of nieces and nephews and other family members. She was a member of the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, but also attended several other country churches including the Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church. Throughout their married life, Adolph was a tenant farmer who rented farms and moved almost every spring to various locations in Jefferson and Switzerland counties in Indiana. Wherever they lived, Pearl attended the church that was closest to their farm. She was devout in her religious faith. Their niece Jean remembers fondly the music at the Lockridge home. Uncle Adolph was a fiddle player, Aunt Pearl played the guitar, and everyone sang. Summer evenings were filled with country music of the old-time variety. Adolph smoked a pipe and when his young niece Jean had an earache, Uncle Adolph relieved the pain by blowing smoke into her ear. Pearl died of cancer in 1948 in the hospital in Madison, IN, one day after her 65th birthday, and was buried in Ryker's Ridge Cemetery. Adolph died in 1954 and was survived by his sons Floyd, of Madison, and Roy Lockridge, of Columbus, IN.

252. Alfred Earl[4] PHILLIPS (Gabriel[3], Mary J.[2] BEAR, Christian[1], John[A]) was born 19 Nov 1890 in Jefferson Co., IN, and died 27 Jan 1978 in Pompano Beach, Broward Co., FL, age 87; bur. St. Paul's Churchyard, St. Louis, MO. He married Mildred Elizabeth ZELLER 16 Dec 1915 in St. Louis, MO, daughter of Henry ZELLER and Caroline GLEMSER. She was born 30 Aug 1892 in St. Louis, MO, and died 09 Feb 1972 in St. Louis, MO, age 79; bur: St. Paul's Churchyard, St. Louis Co., MO.

Notes for Alfred Earl PHILLIPS:
Alfred Earl (known as Earl) was b. in 1890 on a farm in Jefferson Co., IN, the fifth of nine children of Gabriel and Luella Phillips. He went to the one-room Milton School in Milton Township, starting at the age of five. His family moved to a 20-acre farm at the top of Eagle Hollow Hill before 1903. In the summer of 1906, Earl was given a plot of ground on which he raised onions and made $1,000 from that crop. With that money he bought a horse and buggy and paid for a business college education. He worked at various jobs in Madison, IN, including clerical worker and bookkeeper for a men's clothing store, night clerk at the Madison Hotel, and stenographer at Trow's Mill, the largest flour mill in southern Indiana. During the early 1900s in a small town, the economy was poor, especially on the farm. Earl wanted to live in a big city where the opportunities were greater. He was offered a job in St. Louis with J. I. Case Corp. as steno-clerk and left Indiana for Missouri at the age of nineteen. J. I. Case was one of the largest tractor manufacturing companies in the U.S.A. Earl worked for the Case Company for 1 1/2 years in 1910-11, then went on the road as a salesman 1912-1920. He was the top sales representative in the territory of MO and IL and was offered a job as Sales Manager in Stuttgart, AR. He did not want to leave St. Louis, so quit his job and took a job as Sales Manager of the tractor division of Kardell Motor Company. The Company failed after one year and Earl went into his own business. He formed a company known as "Royal Battery Company," a battery manufacturing company which later included auto glass, and finally became "Phillips Auto Glass, Inc." He was in this business from 1920 until he retired in 1955.
Earl met Mildred Elizabeth Zeller in St. Louis and 16 December 1915 they were married. On the day before his marriage, Earl wrote to his mother and father in Madison, IN: "By the time you receive this letter I will be married to the sweetest little girl in the world." They moved into a flat at 3522 Connecticut Avenue, upstairs above Mildred's mother who owned the four-family building. In 1922, they bought a lot and built a home in St. Louis County at 5312 Neosho Avenue. In 1927, they purchased ground and built a four-family flat at 5312 Bancroft Ave., and in 1928 built one next door at 5308 Bancroft.

The 1929 crash and Great Depression that followed brought rents down to 50% of their previous rates. Mildred furnished the apartments in order to get higher rents, and in spit of hard times, they did not lose their properties. Earl's business slowed down and he had to lay off some employees. He lost money in three banks, but somehow he kept the business going. His shop was first located on Channing Ave., then 2214 Olive Street, and about 1945 he built a new building for the business at 2302 Pine Street which he owned until the mid-1970s. Earl retired in 1955 and leased the building to an auto body shop. Later, he sold the building. In 1945 Mildred and Earl bought a home at 5231 Winona and they lived the rest of their lives. They celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary in December 1965. Earl loved baseball, especially the St. Louis Cardinals. Mildred died in 1972 and Earl died in 1978 of a sudden heart attack at his daughter Dorothy's home in Florida. They were survived by two daughters and five grandsons. Earl and Mildred are buried in St. Louis in St. Paul's Churchyard Cemetery.

William Leonard (known as Leonard) was the sixth child of Gabriel and Luella Phillips. Born on a farm in Jefferson Co., IN, he moved into the county seat town of Madison before 1909, boarding with his brother Edward. Then he moved to Indianapolis where he lived downtown at 312 E. St. Clair Street. He was a tall, athletic young man and played basketball on a church team in 1913-14 at the "old" First Baptist Church, at Vermont & North Meridian Streets. In 1914, he joined the church and his membership remained there until 1927. He married (1) Gladys Marie Morgan of Brownsburg in 1917. She was a member of the Christian Church in her hometown, Brownsburg, IN. Later, she and Leonard became members of the Christian Science Church and he served as First Reader at Second Church of Christ, Scientist, in Indianapolis.

They lived in Brownsburg when Leonard registered in the World War draft. He was called to serve in the U.S. Army and was sent overseas with Company D, 131st Infantry, 33rd Division, American Expeditionary Force. On the front lines in France in the Battle of the Argonne Forest in what was "probably the bloodiest single battle in U.S. history", Leonard survived an attack of poison (mustard) gas and woke up in a hospital in Brussels, Belgium. Leonard and Gladys had seven children; one daughter died young. Leonard worked in the furniture business in Indianapolis, first for well-known firms and then was proprietor of his own store on N. Meridian Street. Like his brothers and sisters, he had a good singing voice, and Leonard and Gladys had a musical family who sang and played several instruments. Gladys played the piano, some of the children played the saxophone and clarinet. Phillips family gatherings were always known as a time for singing. He enjoyed playing golf and once he and his oldest son, Bob Phillips, the city-wide Father and Son Golf Tournament in Indianapolis. After Gladys died in 1957, Leonard married [2] Alice Muttart Wagers, a widow with two adult sons. Leonard died of cancer in June 1961 in Indianapolis. Alice later married Carl Bert Westlund and he preceded her in death. Alice lived almost to her 94th birthday; she is buried in Plainfield, IN, with her first husband William Wagers. Leonard and Gladys (Morgan) Phillips are buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis.

Southern NV Veterans Memorial Cemetery, Boulder City, NV. She married William Daily "Dale" WILSON 12 Aug 1923 in Madison, Jefferson Co., IN (M/R), son of Henry WILSON and Ida KNAPP. He was born 09 Mar 1899 in Osgood, Ripley Co., IN, and died 04 Feb 1993 in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN, age 93 y 10 m 26 d; bur. Southern Nevada Veterans Memorial Cemetery.

Notes for Lola Inez PHILLIPS:
Lola Inez was born on a farm near Madison in Jefferson Co., IN, the youngest of nine children. She moved with her family into the county seat town of Madison in 1912 when she was about eight years old. She was baptized and joined the First Christian Church. Lola attended Eggleston School, next door to her home, and in 1921 graduated from Madison High School. She was a slender, pretty, dark-eyed, brunette who was leading lady in her Senior Class Play. After high school graduation, Lola moved to Indianapolis, the city where three of her brothers lived. She was a resident at the downtown YWCA for a few months, then went back home to Madison where she found a secretarial job. She decided "at first sight" that she would marry William Daily Wilson (called "Dale"), a "dashing young man" working for a Business College. And they were married on 12 Aug 1923 at her home on East 4th Street. One agreement made before marriage was that if Dale would give up dancing, Lola would join his church, First Baptist. He kept his end of the bargain and Lola left the Christian Church to attend the Baptist Church with him; she finally moved her church membership in the 1940s. Dale and Lola were active in churches and Sunday Schools wherever they lived. In Madison, they joined with other young couples, to form the Maranatha Class and Dale became its first president. He was a Baptist Life Deacon. In later years, at the First Baptist Church, Las Vegas, Lola, in her 80s, served as Secretary for the Beacon Class, calling members, and keeping in touch with those who were sick. Dale was a Baptist Life Deacon.

They had two daughters, Jean and June. Lola's mother Luella lived with them and helped "raise" the Wilson girls during the years of the Great Depression, while Lola and Dale worked at several jobs to put food on the table. In 1940, the Wilsons moved from the old house on East 4th Street to a newly-built home at 906 East Second Street. Grandma Phillips lived with them until her death in 1944.
Lola started working for the U.S. Government when the Jefferson Proving Ground opened in 1941 and was a private secretary to one of the Army officers, Lt. Adams. When the JPG cut back operations, she drove every day to Charlestown, IN, to work at the Army Ammunition Plant (called the "bag plant").
Later, Dale and Lola owned and operated Wilson's Furniture & Appliances on Main Street in Madison, IN. In 1958 they moved to southern Florida, lived in Hallandale for a short time, then purchased an apartment house in Hollywood, the Fountain Court on Tyler Street, living in one unit and managing ten more. When they sold the apartment house, they purchased a mobile home on the west side of Ft. Lauderdale and lived there until 1977. They left Florida, moved to Las Vegas, NV, to be near their daughter June and her family, built a new home when they were ages 78 and 74, and started a new business - a home Day Care Center. They cared for young children in their home from 1977 to 1988.
Lola was a good cook who was known for her fried chicken and other tasty dishes; she spent many happy hours in the kitchen. Her daughter remembers hearing her Mom singing favorite hymns as she cooked. Wherever they lived - IN, FL, or NV, they were known for their hospitality.
Lola and Dale in their 69 years of marriage lived in Madison, IN, Hollywood and Ft. Lauderdale, FL, and Las Vegas, NV. They lived in Indianapolis with their daughter Jean and her husband Warren in their last years. Notes for Henry M. PHILLIPS:
Henry was named for his Grandfather Henry Phillips. His birth year was listed in the 1900 Census as 1889, and 1888 on his draft card; however, when he married Ida Davis in August 1910, he was age 20, and his father's permission was required for him to get his marriage license. The April 1910 Census gives his age as 20 (b. 1890). Henry and Ida had one daughter, Helen. When Henry registered for the World War in 1917, he lived in Brown Co., IN, where he was a section hand on the Illinois Central Railroad. Henry's death date is unknown but he was deceased before his sister Mary died in October 1933. Family records note that he died of tuberculosis, perhaps in 1927, but this has not been proved. His wife may have remarried.

306. Hazel A.[4] BEAR (Ira[3], Perry E.[2], Christian[1], John[A]) was born 19 Jul 1893 in Marion Co., IN (B/R), and died Aft. Jan 1974 in IL (?). She married (1) David Lafayette PRICE 28 May 1908 in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN (M/R). He was born abt. 1889 in IN (age 21 in Apr 1910 Cens), and died Bef. Jan 1920 in IL or IN (?). She married (2) Alfred SPEERS 17 May 1920 in Lake Co., IN (M/R online); div. He was born 11 Jun 1890 in Ireland, and died 21 Dec 1962 in WI; bur. Wood National Cem., Milwaukee, WI.

Notes for Hazel A. BEAR:
Hazel A. married (1) David Lafayette Price when she was very young and they lived with her parents in 1910. He was a painter and may have worked for Hazel's father Ira Bear in his "carriage painting shop." They had one son, William, born about 1910. She was a widow in the 1920 Census living in Aurora, IL, with son William, age 9; her occupation was "artist." David L. Price's parentage is unknown; he may be the David L. Price, age 11, living with grandparents David L. and Emily J. Overbey in Johnson Co., IN, in the 1900 Census. Hazel married (2) Alfred Speers in Lake Co., IN, in May 1920, but her name was Hazel Price, and her marital status "widow" in the 1930 Census. She lived with her son, Bill Price, in Chicago, IL, and later in Texas. Although unproved, it appears that her second husband may have been the Albert Speers, b. 11 June 1890 in Belfast, Ireland, and died 21 December 1962, buried in the Wood National Cemetery, Milwaukee, WI. His occupation in the U.S.A. was traveling salesman. He was a volunteer infantryman who enlisted in the U.S. Army in October 1916 and served until the World War ended in 1918. He was admitted to a Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in Milwaukee, WI, in 1939, and his marital status was "Divorced" with no former wife's name listed. More proof is needed to determine if he was Hazel Bear Price's ex-husband. Hazel and her son Bill planned to move back to Illinois from Poteet, TX, early in 1974 after he had sold his farm and retired. Hazel was in poor health at that time and may have died soon after moving to Illinois; however, her death record has not been found.

William "Bill" Price, born in Illinois, lived in childhood in Aurora and Chicago, IL, then later moved to Texas and owned a farm near Poteet in Atascosa County. He was a mail carrier and retired from the U.S. Postal Service. In a personal letter to a cousin in Indiana (dated 29 Dec 1973, postmarked 3 Jan 1974), Bill wrote that he owned a property that housed a U.S. Post Office in Illinois and was thinking of making part of this house into living quarters. His aging mother Hazel lived with him and they were moving from the farm near Poteet, Atascosa Co., TX, to the Springfield, IL, area but were not sure where they would "settle" in Illinois. His cousin did not hear from Bill or Hazel again after January 1974.

As a child he lived in the county seat town, Madison, and graduated from High School there in 1923. He wanted to be a farmer and attended Purdue University for awhile, then moved with his family to Hall's Ridge in Shelby Township, south of Canaan, IN. In a personal letter dated 2 September 1991, Shirley wrote: "On August 31, 1929 I married a very nice girl whose Mother had died when she was fourteen years old. I was 24 and she (Neva Brinson) was 21 lacking fourteen days. We raised 3 boys and 3 girls. If she had lived sixteen more days, we would have had 60 years together."
He had several occupations, including farmer, orchard owner, and bookkeeper, and he was a foreman at the Jefferson Proving Ground during the World War II years. He was baptized in the Christian Church, then joined Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, and later was a member of the Hebron and North Madison Baptist churches, then the North Madison Christian Church. After Neva died, when Shirley was 84, he married a childhood friend (2) Mrs. Lorraine (Rynearson) Burns, 80, who had outlived two husbands and had been a widow for fourteen years. She lived in Indianapolis, and her one daughter, Donna Gayle Metzger, lived in the same city. Lorraine died in 1996 at age 86. He died in 2001 at age 95, and is buried beside his first wife, Neva, in the Hebron Baptist Church Cemetery. Shirley Rogers was a family historian with a keen interest in his ancestors and this book is dedicated to his memory.

William Hall Bear's Granddaughter Julia

My Childhood

By Mary Webber Johnson, daughter of Julia

When I was just a little tyke
One of three girls and two boys,
We lacked for many worldly goods
And were short on books and toys.

But we were never cold or hungry
And for love we wanted not.
Mother's arms made us welcome
And she listened to our lot.

Our door was always open
To the friends with whom we's roam,
And she shared her meager goodies
With the ones that we brought home.

We popped corn that Mother grew,
Munched on apples that she'd picked.
Played games devised by mother,
Store bought toys were for the rich.

Our duds were mostly hand-me-downs
Made over with great care,
For Mother was a handy one
And she sewed with quite a flair.

We didn't feel neglected,
Impoverished or denied.
I think it was the love she put Into everything she tried.

Our Daddy was a stern one,
But he seldom used his might.
He set for us the guide lines
That helped us grow up right.

We knew he loved us dearly.
He often told us so.
But 'twas the things he did with us
That made us really know.

The old songs he sang for us
As we sat around his chair,
The kites he helped us build and fly
When March winds filled the air.

We never sat down to a meal
That Daddy didn't pray
He thanked God for all our blessings
And asked His guidance for each day.

Oh, I wouldn't trade my childhood
With one of royal birth.
For having parents just like mine,
Made it the best on earth.

Mrs. Julia Webber Claimed By Death At Home In Lamb

Member of Pioneer County Family; Had Been Ill For More Than A Year

Mrs. Julia P. Webber, wife of Sherman Webber and one of Switzerland County's best ladies, passed away at her home in Lamb about eleven o'clock last Thursday morning. She had been in ill health since an operation undergone a year ago and her condition since that time had grown steadily worse.

The deceased was a daughter of Chris F. and Lucinda Pickett Bear and was born on Tapps Ridge March 20, 1877. In 1900 she was united in marriage to Herman Barkhau, a well known farmer of Posey township, who died in 1905. Five years later she married Mr. Webber, also of that community, who, with the following children survive her, Mrs. J. H. McSweeney of Detroit, Mrs. Thomas Johnson of Indianapolis, Mrs. Wilford Thomas of Rising Sun, and Robert, Ralph and Mabel Webber, all at home. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Kate Johnson and Mrs. John Myers, both of Vevay, two brothers, Lawrence Bear of Montgomery, Ala., and Frank Bear of Indianapolis, an aunt, Mrs. Minnie Wiley of near Vevay and an uncle, Charles Bear of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Webber was a member of the Center Square Church of Christ and was a lady whose devotion to her family and high Christian character gained the respect and esteem of all who knew her.

The funeral services, with Rev. E. E. Montgomery officiating, were held at two o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Haskell & Morrison Mortuary

John Bear's Obituary, Madison Courier, 13 October 1879

13 October 1879

Found Dead in a Field.

John Bear, of Saluda township, this county, was found dead in a corn-field on his farm Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He had gone into the field at 1:30 to cut corn, and, according to all the testimony taken at the inquest, died very suddenly of heart disease. He had complained of late of his heart troubling him and was under medical treatment for the disease at the time of his death. At the time he walked into the field, however, he appeared to be in his usual health. He was 58 years of age. Squire Johnson, assisted by Messrs. John A. Zuck and John W. Smith, held an inquest on the body and rendered a verdict of death from heart disease.

MISSOURI
MARBLE HILL
Here on a scenic hill at the junction of crystal-clear Crooked and Hurricane creeks, Thomas Hamilton laid out Marble Hill after Bollinger County was organized, March, 1851. First called New California, the town was later enlarged, renamed Dallas, and made the county seat. In 1868, confusion with Dallas County led to adopting the name Marble Hill for the unusual marble-like limestone outcroppings found in the vicinity.
First among pioneers in the county area were Swiss Germans from North Carolina who took up Spanish land grants along the Whitewater and Castor rivers in 1800. The county name honors George F. Bollinger, the leader of these settlers. Pioneer legislator, he had a big mill near Burfordville covered bridge in adjacent Cape Girardeau County.
On the opposite bank of Crooked Creek, just southwest of Marble Hill, is Lutesville, laid out in 1869 by Eli Lutes who gave land to the St. Louis and Iron Mt. R. R. (Mo. Pac.) to win the depot location. Lutesville grew as shipping and trading point and Marble Hill as the county seat and banking town for

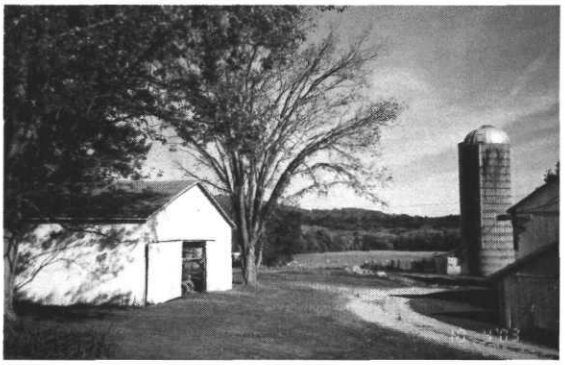
Home on the Bear farm in Milton Township, Sect. 25, Jefferson Co., IN

(originally owned by John Bear, then Christian Bear, then Madison Bear)

Renovated home on old Bear Farm in the 21st Century



The first houses were probably log cabins built by the Bears as the woodlands were being cleared by John and his sons, beginning in March 1814. In about 1840 a home was built with a fireplace in every room (when Christian Bear owned the farm). The old house is gone and a modern home has been built over the old foundation. The old cellar, accessible through a trap door, has large printed letters scratched on the wall: "C H A S R B E A R 1 8 8 1" shown below. Madison Bear owned the farm in 1881 and Charles R. was one of his sons. The recent owner of the farm, Jeff Hill, had this new home built. The previous owner of the Bear farm was Dale Taylor, of Brooksburg.

(Thanks to Fred Hill of Madison, who took this photo of Charles R. Bear's signature on the wall.)

LOWRY H. BEAR, M.D. (1868-1959) - SON OF MADISON BEAR

"Grin and Bear It"

By Don Stepleton

From the Vevay Reveille=Enterprise, Vevay, Indiana, July 10, 1997

"When I was quite young there was a choice of two sources of drink water in the town -- a cistern at every house, or tap water in the back yard of most, at great pressure, from what we called a "hydrant."

Cistern water had a bad odor. Tap water, gray or yellow with mud, came direct from the river, carrying every bacteria and waste of civilization, but lending future immunity to surviving drinkers.

So, I have been healthy, only once in about 70 years needing a doctor's attention, barring injuries.

Home in Vevay on Friday for a weekend I came out in great discomfort Saturday morning. My mother asked Dr. Lowary [sic] Bear to stop by as he walked to his office. During the examination the Doctor said he had phoned my brother John, who, he said, "told me you've got mumps, because you were at his house last week and he had exposed his children to mumps to get it over with."

"All right," I said, "mumps, then."

"It don't look like mumps to me." He thumped my neck and belly. "But your brother says you have mumps. So, I'll treat you for mumps," and he did, thus showing extraordinary tolerance, as an old, old hand, for one newly in the grade and not even a G.P. My brother is a pathologist.

A friend of John, another M.D., told me that Dr. Bear had been voted by his peers the "Premier Physician of Indiana."

When his daughter, Mary, was at college in Indianapolis he bought, for travel home, a Huppmobile touring car and she gave me a ride in it when I was 14 or so. It was a good trip. Mary was talkative and merry, and she told me how confusing for her, as a child, it was to be a Bear. She could hardly distinguish, then, between being a bear with fur and a Bear, as she was, and this was her father's doing. When he read to her from her first books, she said, he changed her favorite story by making over a repeated line into "Papa Bear and Mama Bear and little Mary Bear." It was only after she learned in school to read that she separated in her mind the bears and the Bears.

Mary's mother, Mama Bear that is, was a regular churchgoer and of necessity, Mary went to church too. Physicians of the time could not take Sunday off to babysit. A certain hymn, Mary said, troubled her. It had an important line, "The consecrated cross I'd bear." Again that name. She told how she had looked carefully at everyone in a big family dinner group on the home farm on the Indian Kentucky, near Bear Bridge, and there was not one cross-eyed person present. There may have been a constipated Bear among them. She couldn't be sure.

When Jim Sides and I were building the rammed earth house, a big boy who pounded dirt in the forms came to work on a Monday, hobbling painfully on a severely cut heel. I told him he couldn't work, that he got a half day for coming in. He sat in the shade until Dr. Bear walked by toward his office in that low building opposite the bank. We followed. On the street my limping workman showed his foot to the admiration of two or three of his friends.

When Dr. Bear asked, "How did you do that?" and learned that the boy had stepped on broken glass of a baby's bottle, Saturday evening, he seemed horrified.

"Dirty," the Doctor said. "Filthy."

He put the boy face down on his metal table, toes over the edge, got out his tools and sponges and began work. He air-tested the ether spray, a pain dampener. It was empty.

"It's going to hurt," he told the boy. "You're not going to yell, are you?"

I said, "Wait a minute." I went outside and called the boys whom he had just passed to come stand at the door. Then I told my workman that his friends were listening for his yells. That done, I sat on the calves of his legs and Dr. Bear, rapidly and neatly, did surgery.

The boy didn't yell. He yipped a little. Not much. A blob of salve, a wad of gauze and an area of tape, applied most dexterously, and the job was done. "Keep your heel off the ground for a week," Dr. Bear said, "and don't touch my bandage. Let it fall off. You can go now."

When I asked, "How much for the repair, Doctor?" he turned on me indignantly, "You can't pay me for that," he said. "He did it himself. Not your fault."

Dr. Bear was receptionist, clerk, internist, surgeon, gynecologist, consultant. Also, now and again, janitor."

Note: Dr. Lowry H. Bear lived in Vevay, IN, and practiced medicine there for many years.

Mary Bear Phillips (1830 - 1900)

Buried on Phillips farm, Shelby Twp., Jefferson Co., IN

(On Right): Mary's obituary, Madison (IN) Courier, 10 July 1900

[Year of birth and age may not be correct - born 1829 or 1830.]

MRS. MARY PHILLIPS.

A Good Lady Crosses the River of Death.

Mrs. Mary Phillips born September 30, 1831 died June 29, 1900 aged sixty-nine years and nine months, asthma being the main cause of her death. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. Blaisdell at her home on Dry Fork and the remains were laid to rest in the home graveyard at the side of her husband Henry H. Phillips who died in 1897. She leaves seven children, four brothers, one sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Deceased was the daughter of Cris and Nancy Bear, and an aunt to Judge Perry E. Bear of this place. Long and patiently did this old lady suffer until death called her from our midst. We tender our sympathy to the relatives and friends of the deceased in their hour of sadness and express a hope that even so great a bereavement may be overruled for their highest good because we know that He in whose hands are the issues of life doeth all things well.

Hark! the voice of our Father softly calling,
Calling for Mary our mother so dear.
How can we spare her, merciful Father.
The world will seem so drear.

Close gently the blue-veined eyelids,
And fold the precious hands,
No more we'll feel their tender touch
She has gone to God's own land.

We will miss her sadly, miss her
As the nights and days roll by,
But we know she's safe in heaven
Where no mortals ever die.

Then be comforted ye who loved her,
Who now lieth beneath the green sod,
Your darling angel mother
Is safe in the arms of God.

One who loved her.

MR. PERRY PHILLIPS

Departs This Life After Five Weeks' Illness.

Mr. James Perry Phillips died at eight o'clock this morning, after five weeks' illness, at the family residence, northwest corner of Main and East streets. He was fifty-seven years old, and was a member in good standing of the Christian church. He was twice married and leaves a wife and six children. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Sarah Brown, and three brothers—Solomon, Gabriel and Charles Phillips. The funeral services and burial will take place on Sunday. The interment will be either at Olive Branch or Springdale cemetery. Mr. Phillips was a good citizen and a devoted husband and father, whose death will be sincerely mourned and felt.

Attorney Solomon J. Bear, son of Joseph E. and Margaret (Whitmore) Bear

Obit., Madison Courier, 20 August 1931

SOLOMON J. BEAR DEAD

Widely Known Attorney Succumbs to Complications and Heart Trouble.

Mr. Solomon J. Bear, 67, one of Madison's oldest attorneys in point of service, passed away at his home, 701 east Main street at 10:00 a. m. today following an illness of several months during which he had suffered from complications and heart trouble.

He had been bedfast only a few days but he had been unable to go to his office since last spring. His last appearance in court was in the Sawler will case.

Mr. Bear, a son of the late Joseph and Margaret Bear, was born on Pleasant Ridge. He graduated from the Ryker's Ridge high school and after attending Hanover college for a time he took up the study of law, with his brother, P. E. Bear, who preceded him in death a year ago.

After studying with his brother for a few years he became a partner in the law firm of Sulzer & Bear, a firm that was widely known in southern Indiana and northern Kentucky. At the retirement of Mr. M. R. Sulzer, who for several years has been affiliated with the Sulzer Brothers crude drug company, the firm of Bear & Bear, attorneys, was formed, the other member of the firm being his son Donald R. Bear.

Mr. Bear's first public office was that of city attorney, a position he held when he was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Reul Bear. Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Bear and family have made their home in this city.

He had practiced law for more than forty years and during that time he had served as county attorney for the county board of commissioners for several years and as attorney for the Citizens' building and loan association. For a number of years he served as president of the city school board and in that capacity he gave freely of his time and services for the welfare of the community at large. He was relieved of his duties on the school board only a year ago when he was succeeded by his nephew, Otis G. Reed.

Mr. Bear was a member of the Presbyterian church and of the Knights of Pythias lodge. He was the last member of his immediate family and leaves only his widow and one son, Donald Reul Bear, besides several nieces and nephews.

Since he began the practice of law he had maintained his office at its present location, [illegible] east Main street.

Funeral services will be held at the resident Sunday at 2:00 p. m. with the Rev. Jesse M. Tidball officiating. Interment will be made at Springdale cemetery.

SOLOMON J. BEAR

Passes Away at Home of His Son in California.

Mr. D. C. Bear received word this morning that his father, Solomon J. Bear died in Riverside, Calif., at the residence of his son, Wilbur S. Bear, at 9:30 o'clock, after some days illness.

Mr. Bear was born in Brooksburg January 29, 1841 and at the age of twenty-seven moved to a farm on Pleasant Ridge, where he lived with his family until 12 years ago when they removed to Madison. He is the last of a family of ten children. He was married to Miss Ann Adams of Jefferson county, who died a year ago last August.

Five children were born, two of whom, Hayden and Carl R. have preceded him in death. Those surviving are Rev. A. L. Bear, Yucipa, Calif.; D. C. Bear, of this city, and W. S. Bear, of Riverside, California.

Funeral services will be held in Riverside from the home of W. S. Bear, at 10:00 Saturday morning and the remains will be laid to rest beside his wife in a cemetery at that place.

[Note: Date of birth should be January 29, 1842. His tombstone inscription reads: 1842-1920.]

Solomon Bear died at the home of his youngest son, W. S. Bear in Riverside, CA 29 July 1968.

A Tribute to Wilbur S. Bear in a local newspaper column upon his death in July 1968, Palm Desert, CA Entitled "HI, NEIGHBOR"

By Louisa Ames

Something of laughter and the rich joy of living is gone from the desert scene with the passing of Wilber Bear, "everybody's favorite", Monday evening at his Palm Desert home last week.

He and his beloved Citha came to Palm Desert from Glendale 20 years ago. They had been married in Greensburo, Ind., on New Year's Day 1915. For 53 years they have done everything together. They were charter members of the Shadow Mt. Club and never missed any of the gala affairs there if they were anywhere around.

That was the extent of Wilber Bear's club activities. "He never was a joiner," his wife disclosed. "He preferred that we do things together." They have circled the globe four times, and have explored the African continent extensively. Every summer found them in some fascinating far-flung corner of the world.

Wilber Bear was a devout Methodist. Four of his five brothers were Methodist ministers. One of them, Rev. Alfred Bear, was pastor of the Indio Methodist Church for five years.

The past several months he had been bedridden, but through it all he never lost his ready smile nor the twinkle in his eye.

"He just loved people," Mrs. Bear says simply.

RELATIONSHIP FINDER CHART

Wondering how you are related to someone? Here are some Guidelines:

Gen. 1 - COMMON ANCESTORS - CHRISTIAN BEAR and his wife NANCY HALL

Gen. 2 - SONS & DAUGHTERS of Christian and Nancy Hall Bear are Brothers & Sisters.

Gen. 3 - GRANDCHILDREN of Christian and Nancy Bear are 1st Cousins to each other.

Gen. 4 - GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN of Christian & Nancy Bear are 2nd Cousins to each other.

Gen. 5 - GREAT-GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN of Christian & Nancy are 3rd Cousins to each other.

Gen. 6 - GR-GR-GR-GRANDCHILDREN of Christian & Nancy Bear are 4th Cousins to each other.

Gen. 7 - GR-GR-GR-GR-GRANDCHILDREN of Christian & Nancy are 5th Cousins to each other.

What does "cousin once removed" mean?

Your 1st cousin's child is your 1st cousin once removed because that child is one generation removed from you (in the next younger generation).

The grandchild of your 1st cousin is your 1st cousin twice removed because that child is two generations removed from you, etc.

Your children and the children of your 1st cousins are 2nd cousins because they are in the same Generation. Your second cousin's child = your 2nd cousin once removed.

What is "twice removed"? Your 1st cousin's grandchild is your 1st cousin twice removed.

Your 2nd cousin's grandchild = your 2nd cousin twice removed.

Your 3rd cousin's child = your 3rd cousins once removed.

Your 3rd cousin's grandchild = your 3rd cousin twice removed.

Your 4th cousin's child = your 4th cousins once removed.

Remember -- The word "removed" applies to persons not in the same generation.

What is a double cousin? When siblings from one family marry siblings from another family, the resulting children, grandchildren, etc. are double cousins, because they share all four ancestors in common. For instance, in this book the children of Nancy Hall Bear and Sarah Hall Phillips are double cousins, with William and Sarah Hall as their grandparents.
